

MONDAY 4 OCTOBER 2021						Theme: NZ History
8.00 – 18.00	Registration Desk Open Exhibition Area Open					Gym 2
9.00 – 9.30	Mihi Whakatau & Conference Opening					Chapel
KEYNOTE SPEAKER 1
9.40 – 10.30	Dr Hana O'Regan, CORE Culturally responsive practice					Chapel
10.30 – 11.00	Morning Tea					Exhibition Area, Gym 2
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 1 (1 hour)
Venue
11.00 – 12.00	Aotearoa New Zealand history curriculum workshop, Carol Neill  (Primary and Secondary)	Integrating Aotearoa New Zealand's histories into your local curriculum, Monika Kern  (Primary and Secondary)	The Embodiment of Te Tiriti o Waitangi - two personal journeys, Gail Route and Jane Brown  (Secondary)	Paying attention to Perspectives, Bronwyn Wood  (Primary and Secondary)	Strands of a taura whiri: strengthening the strands of Māori–non-Māori whanaungatanga (relationality) by the transformative telling of New Zealand history, Wendy Fowler  (Primary and Secondary)	A guide to financial education for student wellbeing and community impact, Matt Benassi, Cashmere High School (Banqer)  (Primary and Secondary)
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch					Exhibition Area, Gym 2
KEYNOTE SPEAKER 2
13.00 – 14.00	Professor Graeme Aitken & Carolyn English, Ministry of Education The Thinking Behind the Social Sciences curriculum refresh					Chapel
14.00 – 14.45	Wāananga – led by Professor Tom Roa					Chapel
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 2 (1 hour)

Venue
14.50 – 15.50	Colonisation overview: how it happened here, Graeme Ball  (Primary and Secondary)	Planning for the new curriculum: A panel discussion, Maria Perreau  (Secondary)	The Review of Achievements and the Social Sciences, Tim Flack  (Primary and Secondary)	Building your understanding of GIS Beginner Level Workshop Brendon Robertson, NZBoGT Otago/Southland  (Secondary)	Building your understanding of GIS, Intermediate/ Advanced Gareth Haddon, NZBoGT Taranaki  (Secondary)	Learning Through Action - Climate Change and Local Government Civic Education, Celia Sheerin  (Primary and Secondary)
15.50 – 16.15	Afternoon Tea					Exhibition Area, Gym 2
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 3 (45 MINUTES)
Venue
16.15 – 17.00	‘Statues don’t teach; teachers teach’: Using the memorials and markers from our past to better understand our history, Steve Watters  (Primary and Secondary)	Aotearoa histories in local contexts, Karen Finn and Kate Elder  (Primary and Secondary)	Kā Huru Manu - The Ngāi Tahu Digital Atlas, Takerei Norton  (Primary and Secondary)	Building your understanding of GIS Beginner Level Workshop (continued) Brendon Robertson, NZBoGT Otago/Southland  (Secondary)	Building your understanding of GIS, Intermediate/ Advanced (continued) Gareth Haddon, NZBoGT Taranaki  (Secondary)	Pasifika people, place &amp; politics in the 21st century, Leitu Samasei'a  (Primary and Secondary)
17.00 – 17.05	Move to next session
Venue
17.05 – 17.50	Online resources from Manatū Taonga – Ministry for Culture and Heritage to support teaching and learning Aotearoa New Zealand Histories, Steve Watters  (Primary and Secondary)	Teaching a decolonised Māori and Pākehā histories in Primary Social Studies and Secondary History, Tamsin Hanly  (Primary and Secondary)	Tāngata Ngāi Tahu - People of Ngāi Tahu, Takerei Norton  (Primary and Secondary)	Building your understanding of GIS Beginner Level Workshop (continued) Brendon Robertson, NZBoGT Otago/Southland  (Secondary)	Building your understanding of GIS, Intermediate/ Advanced (continued) Gareth Haddon, NZBoGT Taranaki  (Secondary)	Developing empathy in students through migration stories and digital technologies, Amanda Kirkham and Arnika Macphail  (Secondary)
SOCIAL FUNCTIONS
17.50 – 19.00	Welcome Networking Function A great opportunity to connect with other delegates, as well as our sponsors and exhibitors.					Exhibition Area, Gym 2

TUESDAY 5 OCTOBER 2021						Theme: Change
8.00 – 17.00	Registration & Information Desk Open Exhibition Area Open					Gym 2
8.30 – 9.00	Welcome					Chapel
KEYNOTE SPEAKER 3
9.00 – 10.00	Sir Peter Gluckman, University of Auckland Looking to the future, a post COVID world					Chapel
10.00 – 10.30	Morning Tea					Exhibition Hall, Gym 2
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 4 (1 HOUR)
Venue
10.30– 11.30	Developing digital citizenship in a changing world: Core learning in social studies, Jane Abbiss  (Primary and Secondary)	Holocaust Centre of New Zealand Programmes for Teachers, Chris Harris  (Secondary)	Beyond Victims and Villains: Young People's Acts of Citizenship during Covid-19, Holly Bodman  (Secondary)	Centering Climate Justice in Schools' Responses to Climate Change, Maria Perreau  (Secondary)	Collecting and Using Your Own GIS data with Survey 123, Session 1) Gathering data in Survey123 Gareth Haddon, NZBoGT Taranaki  (Secondary)	Educational travel in a post COVID-19 world, Brent Imrie and Stephen Gillingham, School Travel Collective  (Secondary)
11.30 – 11.35	Move to next session
Venue
11.35 – 12.35	The possibilities of blended learning for teaching Economics, David Farquhar  (Secondary)	Slavery in 2021?: an exploration of Modern Day Slavery in Social Studies, Cameron Sitters  (Secondary)	Google Earth is not just for Geography Teachers, Steve Smith  (Primary and Secondary)	Building Engaged Citizens, Jocelyn Pappriell  (Secondary)	Collecting and Using Your Own GIS data with Survey 123, Session 2) Exploring data in ArcGIS, Gareth Haddon, NZBoGT Taranaki  (Secondary)	Showcasing career options in the Tourism & Hospitality Industries through Virtual Reality, Kirsten Perrott, Go With Tourism  (Secondary)
12.35 – 13.15	Lunch					Exhibition Area, Gym 2
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 5 (45 MINUTES)
Venue
13.15 – 14.00	New initiatives: Parliament's Education team, Caroline Wallis  (Primary and Secondary)	Teaching Tourism in 2021: Embracing Change, Julie McDougall  (Secondary)	Using Google Forms and Sites to make Breakout style Activities, Steve Smith  (Primary and Secondary)	He Kaupapa Tūmanako: Developing practices of Hope for young New Zealander's, Nicolette Trueman  (Secondary)	Psychology, a subject for a changing world, Megan Liddy  (Secondary)	Doc Edge Schools: Latest Release Educational Documentaries - Online and Nationwide Matthew Donaldson, Doc Edge Schools  (Secondary)

FIELDTRIPS
14.00 – 17.00	All fieldtrips depart from St Andrew’s front entrance at 14.00 and return by 17.00.            Participants will all be transported to and from the field trips. Once all participants arrive there will be a short talk discussing shared histories. Then participants will head off on their various walks/activity around the CBD.  RSVP Required
	Waka on Avon	Mana whenua CBD walking tour Led by: Ngāi Tahu	Colonial Heritage CBD walking tour	Earthquake Re-build walking tour Led by: Ōtakaro
SOCIAL FUNCTION
18.30 - Late	Conference Dinner – Canterbury Club with guest speaker Ombudsman Peter Boshier

WEDNESDAY 6 OCTOBER 2021						Theme – Primary and Junior SOS
8.15 – 15.30	Registration & Information Desk Open Exhibition Area Open					Gym 2
8.30 – 9.00	Welcome					Chapel
KEYNOTE SPEAKER 4
9.00 – 10.00	Dr Carol Mutch					Chapel
10.00 – 10.30	Morning Tea					Exhibition Area, Gym 2
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 6 (1 HOUR)
Venue
10.30 – 11.30	Creating meaningful, integrated local curriculum, Bronwyn Houliston and Eleanor Rattray  (Secondary)	Spark curiosity, build understanding with resources and questions, Erena Williamson  (Primary and Secondary)	Enriching pasifika learners through social studies, Leitu Samasei'a  (Primary and Secondary)	Teaching the Holocaust in Aotearoa New Zealand, Kristopher Clancy  (Secondary)	Social Inquiry for local curriculum - Designing rich learning experiences for Years 0-10, Hilary Kingston  (Primary and Secondary)	ETV and EVA as Resource for the Teaching of Aotearoa NZ Histories from 2022, Gretchen Badenhorst, ETV  (Primary and Secondary)
11.30 – 11.35	Move to next session
Venue
11.35 – 12.35	Insights into Social Studies learning in Aotearoa New Zealand schools, Doris Lancaster  (Primary and Secondary)	NZ Histories Years 1-6 Implementation Strategy, Kellie Englefield and Daniel Caigou  (Primary)	How Education Perfect can support the new Aotearoa New Zealand's Histories Curriculum and teaching and learning within the Social Sciences, Chris Langley  (Secondary)	Enhancing your local curriculum through education outside the classroom, Andrea Milligan  (Primary and Secondary)	The Mad Geographer (BreakoutEDU Game), Louise Richards  (Primary and Secondary)	From Grandpa's shed to bicultural museum: MOTAT's journey, Julie Baker, Museum of Transport & Technology  (Primary and Secondary)
12.35 – 13.30	Lunch					Exhibition Area, Gym 2
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 7 (45 MINUTES)
Venue
13.30 – 14.15	Why the world needs more social science. Now!, Richard Shaw  (Secondary)	Updating how learning in social studies is assessed and reported, Rose Atkins  (Secondary)	Keeping Things Fair — Lesson materials on fairness, justice, and the role of the Ombudsman in Aotearoa, Peter Boshier, Ombudsman NZ and Kate Potter, Cognition Education  (Primary and Secondary)	Head, heart, hand: teaching societal issues in Years 5-10, Andrea Milligan  (Primary and Secondary)	Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and Drone Pilot Workshop: A University-School Partnership, Cadey Korson  (Secondary)	Be the Change Maker. Empower your students to make a positive impact both socially and environmentally in their local community, Lucy Wymer, Young Enterprise  (Secondary)

14.15 – 14.20	Move to next session
Venue
14.20 – 15.05	LEARNZ online field trips, Fionna Wright, CORE Education  (Primary and Secondary)	Assessment through Evidence Gathering in Junior Social Studies, Samantha Higginbotham  (Secondary)	Revision Activities for Social Scientists, Tina Smith  (Secondary)	Demographics and Diversity: Asia and Aotearoa, Sean O'Connor  (Primary and Secondary)	Stories from rangatahi who are changing the world, Philippa Cochrane  (Primary and Secondary)	Save the Children NZ – Fostering a Children's Rights Approach to Social and Environmental Issues in the Classroom, Elizabeth Fraser, Save The Children New Zealand  (Primary and Secondary)
15.05 – 15.30	Conference Close and Poroporoaki				Chapel	