

AVS11 Meeting Abstract Example

Research description (limit 300 words)

Introduction: Viruses infect all living forms of life and are one of the most abundant biomasses on earth

Methods: RNA and DNA extractions were performed using

Results: We identified 1000 new viral species belonging to over 25 virus Families

Conclusion: Our data indicate that there are still major discoveries to be made in virology.....

References: (optional)

*Please be noted that the content above is required to be included in your abstracts.