How to do a Paperless Presentation – Videos, GoPros and Drones

Introduction: In this century the high technologies are more developing and everything are easy to access within short period. Maybe the reason why our life styles are change. It could be cause of short attention in something within 2 or 3 minutes. The visual-audio presentation is the one technique that more effective to promote communication between presenter and the audiences. The audiences could be get many information from short video better than one text book.

Material and method: the author use video base presentation and the how to manage the story board of the video presentation.

Conclusion: The paperless presentations will be the new technique to communication to the audiences in this era.