

Dr Philip Leadbitter

Dr Philip Leadbitter MBChB, DCH, FRACP

Dr Leadbitter completed an MBChB at Otago University in 1985. He obtained a Diploma in Child Health in 1992 and FRACP(Paediatrics) in 1997.

Since 1998 Dr Leadbitter has been employed as a Consultant Paediatrician at Hutt Valley DHB and is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Otago. He has been involved in a number of research projects over this time.

Dr Leadbitter has also been involved with the running of a Vascular Birthmark clinic with Professor Swee Tan for many years and collaborated in a number of studies related to the management of haemangiomas during this time.