OPTIONAL TOUR ONE

15 May 2020

Qing Tombs, NZD$180pp plus tip for guides

The Qing imperial tombs cover an enormous area and house China's emperors, empresses and concubines. Although the Qing tombs are more impressive than the famous Ming dynasty graves, these Qing burial sites are visited by relatively few.

Our first stop will be at Yuling, one of the most splendid royal tombs. Next, we'll pay a visit to Ding Dongling, the tomb of Empress Dowager Cixi. The main hall contains reproductions of pictures produced in 1903 by Cixi's photo studio located at the Summer Palace. The tomb bears a striking resemblance to the Empress Dowager's quarters in the Forbidden City.

OPTIONAL TOUR TWO

17 May 2020

City of Emperors, NZD$135pp plus tip for guides

The tour will begin with a stop at Tiananmen Square, the largest public plaza in the world. Located in the heart of modern Beijing, the enormous square is the main entrance to the Forbidden City. You will explore the Forbidden City until lunch when you will enjoy an outstanding dish of authentic roasted Beijing Duck. After lunch, sightseeing continues at the beautiful Temple of Heaven in the southern part of Beijing. We complete the afternoon with a visit to a silk exhibition hall where you will have the chance to see the reeling of silk from cocoons.

OPTIONAL TOUR THREE

17 May 2020

City of People, NZD$125pp plus tip for guides

We begin with a visit to the Beijing Zoo where we will see Giant Pandas. Next, a drive to the Summer Palace, one of the most extraordinary sights in Beijing. Afterwards, we will visit a pearl exhibition hall just outside the Summer Palace. On your return, you will have a chance to make an outside visit to Bird's Nest and Water Cube, which are famous for the 2008 Olympic Games.
