

Markets to Explore

Every Saturday – Toowoomba Farmers’ Market

This is your weekly chance to buy fresh regional produce directly from the region’s farmers including seasonal fruit and vegetables, local meats, hand-made bread, pasta, jams, salts, honey, milk, herbs and salad items. Grab a coffee and enjoy the live music and family atmosphere.

When: Every Saturday 7am – 12pm (winter 8am – 1pm)

Where: The windmills (next to Cobb+Co Museum), 27 Lindsay St, East Toowoomba

Every Sunday – Toowoomba PCYC market

The bustling PCYC markets are bursting at the seams with local produce and multicultural delights. From fruit to furniture, plants to pottery, books to bubble tea, jewelry to jumper leads – the PCYC Market has something for everyone! There’s much more to explore so bring a hat and sunscreen.

When: Every Sunday 7am – 12.30pm

Where: 219 James St, Toowoomba

Contact: Phone 07 4592 4500 or email toowoomba@pcyc.org.au

Fortnightly (Sunday) – The Makers’ markets

This market has a huge variety of local handcrafted goods and foods on show in a gorgeous undercover industrial space lit up with fairy lights. With a dedicated kids’ corner and great coffee, come along for a fun day out supporting local makers.

When: 8am – 1pm, 2nd & 4th Sunday of the month (except 22 September)

Where: Blank Space, The Mills Precinct, 251-291 Ruthven St, Toowoomba

Monthly (Sunday) – Queens Park markets

Set in picturesque Queens Park, the Queens Park Markets showcases boutique art and craft from across South East Queensland. Spend a relaxing Sunday browsing stalls including fine food, art and craft, gifts and home wares, jewelry, and clothing. All stallholder fees are donated to local charities.

When: 8am – 1pm, Jan – Dec 3rd Sunday of the month (Except the 4th Sunday in September)
