The screenshot displays the DISCO Ediscovery interface. At the top, there's a search bar and navigation options. Below, a filter bar shows criteria like 'Any tag (Likely to Highly likely)', 'Jan 1, 2001 or after', and 'Louise Kitchen or Sara Shackleton'. The main area is a document review table with columns for Indicators, Tag Count, Doc Id, Info, and Excerpt. The table lists several documents, including emails and word documents, with their respective dates and subjects. On the right side, there's a chat window for 'Cecilia' AI, which has been asked 'What was raptor at Enron?' and is providing a detailed response about Enron's Raptor IV hedge fund strategy.

“Mass tort cases are won on handfuls of documents, and DISCO’s products and services team is exceptional at helping plaintiffs find critical documents quickly and easily so we can focus on the merits of the case and helping our clients find justice.”
