NOTE: This request form is designed to connect you to an academic community engagement opportunity such as service learning or other project-based learning engagement (e.g., an independent study project or an internship). This form is not intended to request student volunteers. Volunteering is not a “for credit” or academic activity; this form is primarily for opportunities that connect to class as part of the coursework. For volunteers, agencies generally come to campus and recruit students or form partnerships with one or more student organizations
