CIT 2023

CIT 2023 will be a hybrid event that will provide both an in-person and virtual component. The in-person component will be held on the campus of SUNY Oswego, located on the shores of Lake Ontario in Oswego, NY. The city of Oswego is approximately 45 minutes from the Syracuse International Airport.

The virtual component will be via the OnAir platform. Our sponsorship opportunities will include in-person and

Tracks:

1. The New Hybrid Campus
    This track focuses on campus, program, and department initiatives and includes such topics as: inclusiveness, student access to resources and services, diversifying faculty and staff, ensuring accessibility, addressing the digital divide; addressing equity gaps, diversifying faculty and staff, addressing the digital divide, assessment and analytics (e.g. evaluate, measure, and document academic readiness, learning progress, and skill acquisition).

2. Building Relationships
    This track focuses on new and effective ways to connect with colleagues and share innovative approaches across the academy and includes such topics as: professional development, sharing among campuses, faculty fellows, effective sharing methods, communities of practice.

3. Creating Inclusive Classes
    This track focuses on creating a supportive class environment and includes such topics as: pedagogy of care, trauma-informed teaching, implementing universal design concepts, creating an anti-racist/inclusive curriculum; addressing achievement gaps, accessibility, implementing universal design for learning, open resources, open pedagogies.

4. Exploring Innovative Technologies
    This track focuses on tools that are used in the physical /virtual classroom and includes such topics as: student engagement tools, student portfolios, maker spaces, virtual learning platforms, artificial intelligence, mixed reality, robotics.

5. Evolving Pedagogies
    This track focuses on the methods faculty use to interact with learners and includes such topics as: learner engagement, gamification, multidisciplinary approaches, adaptive learning, active learning, blended/hybrid, hyflex, and class community.