

Elizabeth Neumann
Chief Strategy Officer
Moonshot

Elizabeth Neumann is the Chief Strategy Officer for Moonshot, a social enterprise working to end online harms – such as violent extremism, disinformation, child sexual exploitation, gender-based violence, and human trafficking – by applying evidence, ethics, and human rights.

Ms. Neumann recently served as the Assistant Secretary for Counterterrorism and Threat Prevention at DHS where she led eight program and policy teams addressing a range of issues including domestic violent extremism, screening and vetting, countering terrorism and transnational criminal organizations, and human trafficking. Since departing government in 2020, Ms. Neumann passionately educated the public about the growing threat of disinformation and domestic violent extremism through appearances on CNN, MSNBC, PBS, NPR, 20/20, and 60 Minutes, among others. She is a Board Member of the National Immigration Forum, founder and member of the Council on National Security and Immigration and a National Security Contributor at ABC News.
