

John Pistole
TSA Administrator (2010–2014)
FBI Deputy Director (2004–2010)
President
Anderson University (Ind.)

John Pistole, President of Anderson University (Anderson, Ind.);
March 1, 2015 to present.

After practicing law for two years, Pistole began his 26-year career with the FBI in 1983 and served in Minneapolis, New York, Indianapolis, Boston, and FBI Headquarters in Washington D.C. on multiple assignments. After the attacks of September 11, 2001, Pistole served as head of the counter-terrorism division, and then head of national security. In 2004, Pistole was named Deputy Director for the FBI where he served for 5 ½ years. In 2010, he was confirmed by the Senate as Administrator of the Transportation Security Administration, where he served for 4 ½ years, retiring from government in December 2014.

In 2019, Pistole served on the UAS Blue Ribbon Task Force, and since 2019 has served on the Board of Visitors for the National Intelligence University. He also serves on the Homeland Security Experts Group (HSEG), and several Advisory boards and not for profit and community organization boards.