

Pancho Ndebele

Founder & CEO

Emvelo Group

Pancho, is an energy, water, sustainable development engineer and green economy entrepreneur. He holds the following academic qualifications from UK Universities; MBA Leadership and Sustainability, LLM in Environmental Law, MSc in Water & Wastewater Engineering, and a Bachelor of Engineering (Hons) in Electrical & Electronic Engineering. He spent 7 years at SABMiller where he was Head of Environment & Sustainability responsible for sustainability, energy, water, and environmental initiatives and projects across the SABMiller group. He is the Founder and CEO of Emvelo and is responsible for business strategy and projects development.

Organization Overview

Emvelo develops, invests, manages, and operates the green infrastructure projects it originates.

Interests

- Hydrogen Storage and Transportation
- Green Ammonia for Agriculture
- Financing
- Strategic Collaboration