

Data Protection Policy

NAHH Membership

NAHH and Compleat Conference Company Ltd, who manage our membership for us under contract will use the information you provide within this registration, and any additional information you may subsequently provide to us in connection with your membership, for administering this service.

The Association maintains a database of member details, as provided within this registration.

Other than as outlined below*, we will not disclose this information to any other person or organisation, except in connection with these purposes, (or where we have a legal obligation or legitimate business interest to do so).

*As part of your membership your details (lead name, organisation name and address, lead email and telephone number) are made available on the NAHH website within the member's area to enable members to contact other members. If you do not wish this information to be made available, please indicate within the registration form.

You will receive most communications electronically.

To read the privacy policy for NAHH please visit <http://www.nahh.org.uk/accessibility/privacy-policy>

To read the privacy policy for Compleat Conference Company Ltd please visit <https://www.compleatgroup.co.uk/privacy-policy>