Conflict of Interest

Please provide details of all known conflicts of interest (COI):
The intent is to openly identify any potential conflict of interest so that the congress delegates may form their own judgement about the presentation with the full disclosure of the facts.

This process of declaring conflicts of interest is not intended to reduce or inhibit collaboration, partnerships, networks or involvement in the congress, but rather to encourage transparency and integrity in decision making.

COI pertains to a financial relationship for research support, consulting, employment, or non-financial interest ie personal relationships consulting with pharmaceutical, trade companies, manufacturers or corporations whose products or services could be related to the congress. Non-financial interests could include religion, ideology, personal relationships, political.

Where there is no conflict of interest please enter the word: 'NONE'
