

Experiences and reflections when incorporating the Nutrition Care Process and Terminology – (NCP/NCPT) into electronic health records

Dr Angela Vivanti, Princess Alexandra Hospital (Australia)

Dr Angela Vivanti, Adjunct Associate Professor, University of Queensland, is a Fellow of Dietitians Australia and the Research and Development Dietitian at the Princess Alexandra Hospital, Brisbane.

She is Australia's representative, previously chairing the Nutrition Care Process Terminology International Subcommittee and member of the Nutrition Care Process Terminology Research Outcomes Committee.

This work progresses a standardized professional terminology including integration within SNOMED-CT International, optimizing the interface with electronic health records.

Angela has worked on scientific committees of international and national conferences. She has co-authored a case-study text book, publications, evidence-based guidelines and systematic reviews including Cochrane reviews.

Ms Jessie Pavlinac, Oregon Health & Science University (United States)

Jessie Pavlinac, MS, RD, CSR, LD, is the Manager of Clinical Nutrition and Senior Instructor at Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) in Portland, Oregon where she has practiced for 40 years in the areas of renal and transplant nutrition and clinical nutrition management. She received her BS in Zoology from Oregon State University and her MS in nutrition science from University of Wisconsin, Madison and a Masters in Healthcare Management from OHSU.

Jessie is an active member of the Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics, served as President in 2009-2010, and currently serves on the Academy Nutrition Care Process Research Outcomes Committee, Quality Management Committee, Nominating Committee, Advanced Practice Specialty panel, and as the Academy alternative representative to the AMA Common Procedural and Terminology Committee.

Jessie has received several honors including the recipient of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Medallion Award, the Oregon Dietetic Association Award of Merit, the National Kidney Foundation Council on Renal Nutrition Recognized Renal Dietitian, the American Dietetic Association Council on Education, Outstanding Dietetics Educator, and 2010 Winter Olympic Torchbearer. She has given numerous presentations and authored/co-authored articles on reimbursement for nutrition services, renal nutrition, and clinical nutrition management.

Ms Luise Persson Kopp, MHS Luise Persson Kopp, The Danish Dietetic Association (Denmark)

Luise Persson Kopp, Master of Health Science, Clinical Dietitian, is Board Member of the Danish Dietetic Association and is Denmark's representative in the Nutrition Care Process Terminology (NCPRO) International Workgroup. She is chair-elect of the NCPRO International Workgroup.

Luise is the EFAD delegate for the Danish Dietetic Association. She is representing the Danish Association in different Workgroups and Expert groups regarding Electronic Health Record documentation and legislation, facilitated by the Danish Health and Patient Safety Authorities and is Education Representative at two Danish Universities. She has been working as Project Manager with the Danish translation of the Nutrition Care Process Terminology since 2016 and is head of the Danish NCPT Steering Group. Luise is working with Dietetic and Nutrition Electronic Health Records and how to optimize and quality proof documentation.