

13. Accelerating the adoption of evidence into dietetic practice with the PEN®: Practice-based Evidence in Nutrition System

Presenter Biographies

Canada - Mary Anne Smith, PhD RD

Mary Anne Smith is the Director of the PEN® System. She holds a Bachelor of Science (biology) from Wilfrid Laurier University and a Bachelor of Applied Science (dietetics), a Masters of Applied Nutrition, and a PhD (food science) from the University of Guelph. Her research interests include knowledge translation, food policy, food safety, and food security and she has worked in the past in private practice and as a consulting dietitian for government and non-governmental organizations.

UK – Eleanor Johnstone RD

Eleanor Johnstone is the Professional Practice Manager at the BDA. Eleanor has a keen interest for research in nutrition and dietetics, working as an Evidence Analyst for PEN and a committee member for the EFAD Research and Evidence Based Practice committee. Eleanor holds a postgraduate degree in Dietetics from Leeds Beckett University