FRIDAY 6 OCTOBER

This morning we depart Belfast and delve deep into the fascinating region that is Northern Ireland. First stop allows you the opportunity to master the art of the Irish Coffee in Ireland's oldest thatched pub, The Crosskeys Inn. Sit by the fire and enjoy the fruits of your labour in this charming rural setting. We then proceed into the heart of the Sperrin Mountains where you will walk in the footsteps of St. Patrick at Glenshane Country Farm and enjoy a home-made lunch. You will meet with James McCloy, a fourth generation shepherd who will give you first-hand experience of centuries-old skill of herding in one of the most untouched natural environments in Ireland.

After lunch it is onwards to Derry-Londonderry and a historical stroll around the only completely intact walled city in Ireland, prior to an evening dinner in the spectacular Guildhall. Home to fascinating living history, award winning museums and the legendary Derry Girls, this city packs a punch. Overnight in Derry-Londonderry.

Today we bid farewell to Co. Londonderry and make our way towards the lakelands of Fermanagh for a private cruise around Boa Island with skipper Barry Flanagan. There is no set itinerary and countless possibilities. Starting from Enniskillen, Ireland's only island town, Barry will choose your route, based on his knowledge of the changing currents, seasons and movements of wildlife. As you travel, he will show you secretive creatures such as kingfishers, and intrigue you with poignant stories of these islands, which for centuries were home to thriving communities.

Enjoy a hearty brunch at Lusty Beg before continuing to Ireland's oldest pottery, Belleek Pottery where you have the opportunity to embrace some retail therapy or merely admire some of the famous collection. Finish off the day with a visit to Joe McGirr at his Boatyard Distillery and learn how he uses traditional techniques in contemporary ways to make his Boatyard Double gin. Evening at leisure. Overnight in Enniskillen.
