DAY 1

FRIDAY 6 OCTOBER

What better way to unravel this intriguing city than by getting to grips with its history during your own VIP Black Taxi Experience. Learn about its history and hear first-hand accounts about the Troubles from your driver, who lived through this time. Finish at the epic Peace Walls, hear about the significance of the Good Friday Agreement and finish by leaving your own personal message on the peace wall for the young people of Belfast.

This evening you go to Gaol!! Dinner this evening is hosted in the Matrons Gallery of the former Crumlin Road Gaol Prison. Charged with keeping control of 125 female prisoners, the Matron lived onsite alongside 25 other staff. This evening you dine in her Gallery. Within this authentic and memorable setting see how much Belfast has changed and enjoy entertainment from some of Belfast's youngest and most up and coming musicians.

DAY 2

SATURDAY 7 OCTOBER

This morning will you move South of the city into Co. Down to an area of outstanding beauty at Strangford Lough. Tracey's Farmhouse Kitchen awaits for a hands on experience like no other. Picture a quaint cottage, a roaring fire and the smell of freshly cooked soda bread wafting through the air. Tracey is on standby to welcome you into her home where you will learn the art of cooking the perfect Irish soda bread. Meet with Tracey's family, venture onto their family farm and afterwards take a canoe or try stand up paddle boarding out on the bay. Finish with a homemade lunch before venturing back to the city centre.

Upon return to the city meet with the Artists and Activists of Another World Belfast. This not for profit organisation is all about "Show Some Love" for people and planet. Hear their story and become part of their mission this afternoon by volunteering at their Free Store where they give people in need the opportunity to "shop" for their styles, but no money is exchanged.

This evening enjoy a private dinner in the Michelin recommended Waterman House, located in the Cathedral Quarter. For those who wish to extend the evening, the lively Cathedral Quarter awaits.

DAY 3

SUNDAY 8 OCTOBER

This morning taste and tag your way around the streets of Belfast on this exclusive food and art experience. Discover hidden gems of the city, taste local delicacies and learn about Belfast's street art which speaks of love, laughter, anger, beauty and defiance but most of all it speaks of Belfast and the place that it's becoming.
