Belfast in a day

WELCOME TO BELFAST

This morning you take Belfast by bike! Traverse this intriguing city on your own two wheels while your guide stops off at areas of interest to share hidden tales of times past.

Pass points of interest such as the Big Fish as you make your way to the formidable Titanic Quarter. While in this area of the city you will meet with Donal who will tell you all about the Maritime Mile and you will learn how the dramatic transformation of Belfast Harbour and the River Lagan enabled the construction of some of the finest ships in the world including Titanic

As lunchtime beckons you can look forward to some hearty Irish authentic fare in the heart of the city. This afternoon you see a different side of the city as you tag and taste your way around on an exclusive art and food experience created especially for OYW.

This evening enjoy a private dinner in the Michelin recommended Waterman House, located in the Cathedral Quarter. For those who wish to extend the evening, the lively Cathedral Quarter awaits.
