

MELBOURNE IN-PERSON PROGRAM – IST CONFERENCE

FRIDAY 25 NOVEMBER 2022 (AEDT)

	VENUE: Auditorium	VENUE: Victoria Room 1	VENUE: Victoria Room 2	VENUE: Victoria Room 3
8:30am	Registration and refreshments (Sofitel Auditorium Foyer)
9:00 – 9:15am	Conference Co-Host Welcome (Auditorium): Monash Vice-Chancellor Prof. Margaret Gardner
9:15 – 10:15am	Keynote (Auditorium): Prof. Flor Avelino (Utrecht University) (virtual)
10:15 – 10:30am	Morning tea (Promenade, outside Victoria rooms)
10:30 – 12:00pm	Dialogue session: The 2023 Global Sustainable Development Report (GSDR) and transformations to achieve the SDGs (#220) Speakers: A/Prof Shirin Malekpour Dr Simon Wright Dr Wikke Novalia Prof Michael Mintrom A/Prof Megan Farrelly	Geographies and methodologies: Integrating material cycles into the analysis of an accelerating energy transition for Aotearoa – New Zealand – Isabella Pimentel Pincelli (#12) Supermarkets and Food Transitions to Sustainability in New Zealand – Barbara Ribeiro (#116) Mainstreaming DER: An impact framework to monitor and evaluate the transition to DER-based flexibility services – Dani Alexander (#196)	Short paper session: Swimmable rivers as transitions experiments using regenerative and decolonial approaches – Loretta Bellato (#61) Connecting theory and practice: Sustainability Transitions in Urban Food in the Global North – Geoff Ebbs (#164) Design Anthropological Futures – Emma Quilty (#217) Towards niche readiness: achieving socio-economic maturity in the bottom-up transition of DC power systems – Yannick Schöpfer (#183) Stimulating niche-regime interaction through intermediary activities: the case of DC neighbourhoods in Germany – Yannick Schöpfer (#184)	Politics, power and policy in transitions: Creating benefits for local community in large-scale energy projects: lessons learned from CSG development in Australia – Ting Ting Tracy Cheung (#50) International climate justice and democratic representation: How well do wealthy states with ambitious climate agendas represent climate justice principles? – Nathan Fioritti (#233) Creating a just and regenerative zero-carbon economy: learning from Australian coal region transition strategies – John Wiseman (#109)
12:00 – 1:00pm	Lunch (Promenade, near Auditorium)
1:00 – 2:30pm	Short Paper Session 1: Intention-implementation gap of community engagement in urban waterways governance: a scoping review – Ethmadalage Perera (#31) A Regenerative Urban Design Implementation Strategy: Coupling food reconnection with pollinator biodiversity in New Zealand's public spaces – Barbara Ribeiro (#114) Recognising diversity during public transport industry transitions in Australia – Ilya Fridman (#41) Thinking and doing energy transition(s) otherwise: an ontological question – Hilman Fathoni (#84)	Short Paper Session 2: Comparison of the transition to more sustainable stormwater management in China and the USA – Yitong Zhao (#21) Circular Economies of Food Waste. Exploring institutions and place-specificities of Melbourne's food service industry – Franziska Czernik (#268) Conceptualising Circular Economy Transitions through Theory of Change: A case study of Victoria – Olamide Shiitu (#68) Coherence of policies that enable sustainability transitions: engaging SMEs in urban sustainability transformations – Chamila Weerathunge (#175)	Governing transitions: Learning from University Living Labs: Effective governance of experimentation and co-creation towards a Net Zero Campus – Paris Hadfield (#266) Urban experimentation, place, and pathways to impact – Wikke Novalia (#364) Framing Urban Infrastructure Transitions at Precinct Scale – Darren Sharp (#243) Melbourne's change agents: Mainstreaming nature-based solutions and charting urban transitions – Clare Adams (#141)

	VENUE: Auditorium	VENUE: Victoria Room 1	VENUE: Victoria Room 2
2:30 – 2.45pm	Afternoon tea (Promenade, outside Victoria rooms)
2:45 – 4:15pm	Governing transitions: Connecting global imperatives and local action at the regional scale: city networks and the policy-science nexus – Kajsa Lundberg (#123) Climate emergency declarations by local governments– what comes next? – Judy Bush (#210) What role can government play in accelerating sustainability transitions across innovation networks? – Simon Wright (#354) Engaging with the SDGs, a catalyst for urban transformation? A case study of Melbourne, Australia – Jarrod Grainger-Brown (#228)	Understanding transitions – conceptual contributions to transition frameworks: Bridging data governance and socio-technical transitions to understand sustainable smart cities – Jessica Bou Nassar (#211) Transitioning housing energy efficiency retrofit in Australia: Insights from an empirical study – Lisa de Kleyn (#240) Household niche experimentation in sustainability transitions and everyday life – Jo Lindsay (#119)	Short Paper session: Modelling multi-system transitions to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): combining system dynamics models with narratives for change – Cameron Allen (#221) A working toolbox for bringing single-occupancy vehicle owners on board with transitions to shared and micro-mobility – Barbara Ribeiro (#115) Intellectual Property Rights and the International Political Economy of Sustainability Transitions – Alexandre San Martin Portes (#247) Innovation Communication in Transitions to Sustainable Direct-Current Technologies – Claas Digmayer (#128)
4:15 – 5:30pm	Closing panel (Auditorium): Actors and behaviour change in sustainability transitions Panelists: Prof. Sarah Pink (Monash University) Prof. Liam Smith (Monash University) Prof. Lauren Rickards (RMIT University) A/Prof. Paul Upham (Groningen University) (virtual) Chair: Prof Rob Raven (Monash University)			