

Template Instructions - IMOOG 2023

The deadline to submit your abstract for IMOOG 2023 is 1 February 2023.

Abstracts received after this date without prior approval from the Scientific Committee Chair will be reviewed at the discretion of the Committee and will not be considered for an oral presentation.

Anti-plagiarism Statement

EAOG and EAGE invite the presentation of new and original material in a range of multi-disciplinary topics in organic geochemistry. EAOG and EAGE take plagiarism very seriously. Therefore, if an (extended) abstract or paper, after careful review, examination and consideration, is rejected on the basis of plagiarism, ALL authors of the abstract/paper will be denied the opportunity for further abstract submissions for the following three years. Note that this means that NO abstracts/papers from ANY of the authors (as author or co-author on subsequent papers) will be accepted for ANY EAOG or EAGE event (Annual Meeting or Workshop) for a period of three years starting on the date of the event for which the paper was originally submitted.

Publication

The accepted abstract will be included in the proceedings as submitted, authors are strongly encouraged to submit abstracts written in satisfactory English, the official language of the conference. The Scientific Committee will reserve the right to reject abstracts of low scientific or likely presentation standard.

Cancellation information

In case you want to withdraw your abstract, please inform us as soon as possible and keep the following deadlines in mind:

- If you withdraw your abstract by 15 August 2023, it will not be included in the conference proceedings.
- If you withdraw your abstract after 15 August 2023, we will try to remove it from the conference proceedings. However, the proceedings may already have been taken into production by then. In that case, it is not possible to remove the abstract from the proceedings anymore.

Please note: EAOG and EAGE cannot be held liable for any loss, damage, direct, indirect or consequential damage as a result of withdrawal, removal or non-removal of the abstract in any way.

Layout of Abstract

Your abstract should be written in English according to the following guidelines:

- The conference template must be used; margins may not be changed;
- The use of sections is optional. If sections are used, the section headers must be in bold;
- Start your abstract (text or section header) directly under the EAOG logo;
- Abstract title must be maximum 2 lines.

- List of authors needs to be included with first names in initials, surname, company names indicated with numbers.

- Used font is Times New Roman font, 12 pts with single line space. Set the alignment to justified and use standard Word outline (body text);
- All margins are set to 1 inch (2.54 cm);
- Supply a short caption for your graphic and/or table in italics.
- Please keep in mind to include references where applicable.

The abstract should be submitted in MS Word or PDF format. If submitted in PDF format, please make sure the file is not protected.

Uploading your abstract

Your abstract will be uploaded using an online submission tool. During the submission process, you will be requested to enter some additional information (i.e. your name and email address, your preference for an oral or poster presentation and the topic you wish to submit your abstract for).

If you have any questions about the submission process, please let us know (abstracts@eage.org).
