Student Halls available for booking during the Congress

In addition, we offer delegates at ERSA 2018 accommodation at Brookfield Village, which is located adjacent to the Congress venue. This is student accommodation.

The accommodation on offer are single rooms in an 8 bedroomed townhouse, each house has 2 bathrooms and kitchen/dining room.

The rooms are available from 28th August with a 10.00 a.m. check out on Saturday 01st September. They can facilitate anyone coming earlier if necessary.

The room rate is €35 per person per night bed only. There is a small restaurant on site should any of the delegates wish to avail of it for breakfast.

Further information on Brookfield Village is on <http://www.brookfieldvillage.ie>, and bookings can be made directly with them at miriam@brookfieldaccommodation.ie with a reference ERSA 2018 in the subject line.

Other alternatives

If the previous options are not appealing or you have missed out on your preferred option there are other types of accommodation you can choose.

Adjacent to University College Cork (less than 5 minutes from the Congress venue) there is a wide selection of Guest Houses that provide Bed and Breakfast Accommodation. These include Garnish House, Killarney House, Crawford House, and Audley House. These guest houses, and several more, are located on Western Road, which is the road on which the Congress venue is located. You can get more information and options at <http://cork.ie/wheretostay/bedandbreakfast/>.

Another option with larger rooms, possible for a family stay, is Lancaster Lodge. This is located adjacent to the River Lee Hotel and within a 10 minute walk of the University campus.

There will be many alternatives (possibly with special deals) on offer on hotel booking sites such as www.booking.com, www.trivago.ie, and www.hotels.com. Cork is also well serviced with www.airbnb.com rooms.
