

CHERISH eConference 2021

Coastal Cultural Heritage & Climate Change (CCHCC)
Treftadaeth Ddiwylliannol Arfordirol a Newid Hinsawdd

www.cherishproject.eu

@CHERISHproj

@CHERISHProject

Online Wednesday 12th May 2021
Ar-lein Dydd Mercher 12fed Mai 2021

DUNBEG
09:45	Welcome / Croseo Minister Eamon Ryan, Minister for Environment, Climate and Communications Minister Malcolm Noonan, Minister for Heritage and Electoral Reform
10:00-10:30	Session 1 / Sesiwn 1 Chair: Linda Shine Climate Change and the Coast: Losing ground and losing the past John Sweeney, Maynooth University Ireland / Prifysgol Maynooth, Iwerddon
10:30-10:45	Providing a framework to understand the effects of climate change on the coastal and marine historic environment Anthony Corns, CHERISH (The Discovery Programme) / Y Rhaglen Ddarganfod
10:45-11:00	BREAK / EGWYL
Session 2 / Sesiwn 2
DUNBEG Chair: Toby Driver	DINAS DINLLE Chair: Sandra Henry
11:00 – 11:15 Maritime heritage and spatial planning toolkit for sustainable development and Blue Growth - The BalticRIM project as an example of co-operation in the Baltic Sea Region Rikka Tevali, University of Helsinki, Finland / Prifysgol Helsinki, Y Ffindir	11:00 – 11:15 Resistance and acceptance: managing dynamic coastal heritage in Scotland Ewan Hyslop, Historic Environment Scotland / Amgylchedd Hanesyddol yr Alban
11:15 – 11:30 Riding the Storm: Protecting Ireland's coastal heritage Michael McDonagh, Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage, Ireland / Adran Dai, Llwyodraeth Leol a Threftadaeh, Iwerddon	11:15 – 11:30 A conservation and environmentally focussed citizen science monitoring programme for underwater cultural heritage - GIRT Scientific Divers Andrew Viduka, Maritime and Commonwealth Heritage, Australia / Treftadaeth Forol a Chymanwlad, Awstralia
11:30 – 11:45 Low budget strategic approach to monitoring the coastline of Wales	11:30 – 11:45 Impacts of storminess and sea level change on the Welsh coast - long term perspectives from the

	Gwyn Nelson, Welsh Coastal Monitoring Centre, UK / Canolfan Monitro Arfordirol Cymru, DU	CHERISH project Sarah Davies, CHERISH (Aberystwyth University, UK) / CHERISH (Prifysgol Aberystwyth, y DU)
	11:45 – 12:00 Question and answer	11:45 – 12:00 Question and answer
	Chair: John O’Keeffe	Chair: Dan Hunt
12:00-13:00	12:00 – 12:15 Citizen Science Tanzania: A strategy to monitor and mitigate the impacts of climate change on coastal heritage Elgidius B. Ichumbaki (Ichu), University of Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania / Prifysgol Dar es Salaam, Tanzania	12:00 – 12:15 Mapping Memories: A community approach to studying historic coastal change in Essex, UK Oliver Hutchinson, CITIZAN, UK / CITiZAn, y DU
	12:15 – 12:30 Scheduled Monuments and sites at risk of coastal erosion in Denmark: Heritage legislation and actions Pernille Frederiksen, Centre for Cultural Heritage Monuments and Sites, Denmark / Canolfan Henebion a Safleoedd Treftadaeth Ddiwylliannol, Denmarc	12:15 – 12:30 Maritime endangered archaeology in the Middle East and North Africa: assessing the impact of climate change Kieran Westley, Ulster University, UK / Prifysgol Ulster, y DU
	12.30 – 12:45 Beneath (and beside) the waves: understanding the impacts of climate change in the maritime environment? Kieran Craven, CHERISH (Geological Survey Ireland) / CHERISH (Arolwg Daearegol Iwerddon)	12.30 – 12:45 Climate change and heritage - preparing for difficult conversations Hannah Fluck, Historic England, UK / Historic England, DU
	12:45 – 13:00 Question and answer	12:45 – 13:00 Question and answer
13:00-14:00	LUNCH / CINIO
	Session 3 / Sesiwn 3
	DUNBEG Chair: Kieran Craven	DINAS DINLLE Chair: Sarah Davies
14:00-15:30	14:00 – 14:20 Now you see it now you don't: experiences on coastal archaeology research and management in Brittany and NW Iberia Elias Lopez-Romero and Marie-Yvane Daire, Complutense University of Madrid, Spain and University of Rennes, France / Prifysgol Complutense Madrid, Sbaen a Phrifysgol Rennes, Ffrainc	14:00 – 14:20 Climate change adaptation – A national and local perspective David Dodd and Christine Baker, Climate Action Regional Office and Fingal Council, Ireland / Swyddfa Randarthol Gweithredu ynghlch yr Hinsawdd, Iwerddon, Cyngor Fingal, Iwerddon

	14:20 – 14:35 Expanding Florida’s heritage monitoring scouts across Florida and beyond: North American heritage at risk collaborative Sarah Miller, Florida Public Archaeology Network, USA / Rhwydwaith Archaeoleg Gyhoeddus Fflorida, UDA	14:20 – 14:35 Historic environment and climate change in Wales sector adaptation plan : A coastal focus Jill Bullen, Natural Resources Wales, UK / Cyfoeth Naturiol Cymru, y DU
	14:35 – 14:50 Monitoring slow onset effects at national monuments in Ireland: The LegIT pilot project Cathy Daly, Univeristy of Lincoln, UK / Prifysgol Lincoln, y DU	14:35 – 14:50 Coastal megagravel records extreme overland flow velocities during storm wave inundation: relevance for long-term coastal management Ronadh Cox, Williams College, Massachusetts, USA / Coleg Williams, UDA
	14:50 – 15:10 Monitoring Change and increasing understanding of heritage at the coast edge Louise Barker, CHERISH (Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Wales) / CHERISH (Comisiwn Brenhinol ar Henebion a Hynafol Cymru)	14:50 – 15:05 Climate change critical infrastructure and cultural heritage Anne Jensen, University of Alaska Fairbanks / Prifysgol Alaska Fairbanks
	Question and answer 15:10 – 15:30	Question and answer 15:05 – 15:30
15:30-15:45	BREAK / EGWYL
	Session 4 / Sesiwn 4 Chair: Koen Verbruggen
	DUNBEG
15:45-16:45	Live panel discussion A panel discussion on the wider picture of climate change and coastal heritage and strategic and policy decisions that need to be considered in the future to protect that heritage before opening up to a wider discussion with conference attendees. Tom Dawson, SCAPE, University of St Andrews / Prifysgol St Andrews Virginia Teehan, Heritage Council / Cyngor Treftadaeth William Megarry, Queen's University Belfast / Prifysgol y Frenhines Belffast
16:45	Closing remarks CHERISH Advisory Committee	