

British Society of Paediatric Dentistry

BSPD Annual Scientific Conference, Newcastle 13-15 September 2023

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Keynote lectures from internationally renowned speakers on themes of cariology, inequality and sustainability
- New for 2023 Small group breakout sessions on a variety of topics including: Transgender Issues in Paediatric Dentistry, Commissioning, MCN & local planning, Restorative Hints & Tips, Endodontic Hints & Tips, Acupuncture, and Mental Health First Aid
- Separate Teacher's Study Day (13 Sept)
- Posters and oral presentations
- Exhibition
- Full social programme
- Networking opportunities
- And much more!

See overleaf for programme highlights

Don't miss out on being part of the UK's largest paediatric dentistry event

<http://bspdconference.org.uk>

Tipping the scales-making a better fairer world for children in the future

PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

- "An update in cariology for the paediatric patient " Prof Yasmi Crystal
- "'Deep End' Primary Care Network – engaging primary care practitioners to reduce health inequalities" Dr Sarah Snowden & Dr Sameena Hassan
- "An overview of deep caries management and vital pulp therapies: current concepts and techniques" Prof Hal Duncan
- "Inequalities in Oral Health" Prof Rebecca Harris
- Sustainability Forum
 - "Sustainable healthcare in an NHS Trust" Mr. James Dixon
 - "Experiences of the first carbon-neutral surgery" Mr. Sandro Di Simplicio
 - "Sustainable healthcare – approaches from a national perspective" Mrs. Alifia Chakera
 - "Environmentally sustainable anaesthesia, focussing on nitrous oxide usage" Dr. Chris Allen
 - "Sustainable dentistry for the paediatric dentist" Prof. Paul Ashley & Dr. Alexandra Lyne

