

IV Therapy and OPAT 2020

10th September 2020 | Molineux Stadium Wolverhampton

Safe & Effective | Kind & Caring | Exceeding Expectation

Crossing Boundaries IV Access Provision Across the Health Setting

08:45	Delegate Registration and Exhibition Viewing
Chair: Ian Badger, Consultant Surgeon, The Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust
09:30	Welcome and Housekeeping Ian Badger, Chair
09:45	Intravenous Therapy – Meeting Patient Needs in the General Surgical Setting Graham Williams, Consultant Colorectal Surgeon, The Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust
10:15	Parenteral Nutrition and Associated Challenges Jaci Chapman, Nutrition Support Dietitian and Team Lead, The Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust
10:45	Refreshments and Exhibition Viewing
11:30	Antimicrobial Therapy Administration – A Complex Situation Parmjit Kang, Antimicrobial Pharmacist, The Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust
12:00	Clinical Collaboration in the Reduction of IV Associated Risk for Critical Care Patients James Bitmead, Infection Control Nurse for IV Access, University College London Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
12:30	Company Symposium sponsored by Smiths Medical
13:00	Lunch and Exhibition Viewing
14:15	Triple A's: How not to bypass a vein? Successful Approaches to Vascular Access in Challenging Situations Maya Guerrero, Clinical Specialist Lead, NHS SC - Clinical Collaboration Team and Honorary CNS - Vascular Access, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
14:45	Vascular Access in the Community – Maintaining Safety Following Discharge Kate Owen, District Nurse Community IV Team Leader, Queen's Nurse, The Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust
15:15	Closing Remarks Ian Badger, Chair
15:30	Conference Close

With thanks to our platinum sponsor, Smiths Medical.

smiths medical