EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

Birmingham Conference Centre
Friday 18 November

Welcome

Dear Colleague,

After the tremendous success of the IV Forum Conference in 2019, the Infection Prevention Society (IPS) IV Forum is hosting its 10th Annual one day conference which is being held on Friday 18th November 2022 at the Birmingham Conference Centre.

IV therapy is a well-established element of modern healthcare provision, but not without a broad range of risk attached, and this event hopes to address such issues. It also aims to provide an update on the various projects in which the Infection Prevention Society are involved.

Who can you expect to meet?

This day is aimed at infection prevention and control practitioners, IV nurse specialists, vascular access teams, OPAT teams, critical care nurses, microbiologists, anaesthetists and anyone with an interest in vascular access and current infection prevention practices related to vascular access.

The programme:

Our experienced IPS IV Forum conference organising group has been busy working on an extremely topical and high profile programme that you will have come to expect over the years and will include:

- CRBSI - microbiology, Dr Mark Garvey
- DRIPP/Surveillance , Sue Rowlands
- VHP 2020 - how is it fairing up!, Carole Hallam
- Flushing/prevention of complications, Andrew Barton
- IV Passport - the launch, Valya Weston

There will also be allowance for two Platinum sponsorship slots which will include a Company symposium within the main programme. This is a great opportunity for you to present to this specialist audience.

This one day conference represents an important educational activity for the IV Forum in an area of current strong clinical and commercial interest. We hope that you will be able to attend and contribute to what will be a key part of the educational input of the day. We look forward to welcoming you to this important day in the educational calendar of IPS.

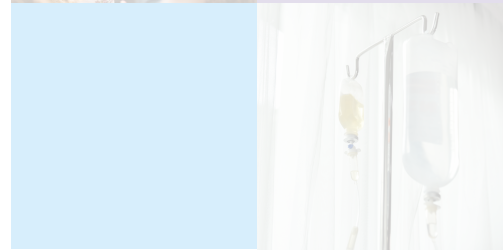

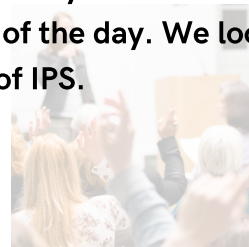

Yours sincerely,

Adrienne Cousins

Why Should I Exhibit?

IPS IV Forum conference provides an excellent platform for industry to showcase their products and services to front-line professionals within the vascular access and current infection prevention practices.

There are numerous benefits from exhibiting at this prestigious event:

- Large one day audience of infection prevention and control practitioners, IV nurse specialists, vascular access teams, OPAT teams, critical care nurses, microbiologists, anaesthetists and anyone with an interest in vascular access and current infection prevention practices related to vascular access
- Generate quality leads from practitioners who are passionate about learning and improving their facilities
- Discuss needs of your clients, as well as potential clients, and demonstrate your company's solutions in person
- Condensed exhibition hours ensure a steady flow of traffic. Coffee breaks and lunch take place in the exhibition hall bringing all attendees together
- Build visibility for your company and promote your company's image in an educational setting
- Test out new products and services at customer level
- Expand your database to strengthen your overall sales and marketing programme
- Build relationships with an active and engaged audience
- Gain valuable customer feedback
