SIGNAGE & GRAPHICS PRINTING

With the current challenges we face with the International shipping of exhibition materials, we would recommend Cameron Event Logistics printing and delivery-to-stand service, CEL can produce your marketing materials in Scotland and delivery to stand for your arrival, you simply send your files over and they will manage the rest.

Cameron Event Logistics provide a wide range of printed signage and marketing materials from Printed Foamex shell scheme panels & free standing Eco Board backdrop panels to POS displays & simple marketing leaflets, along with a wide range of digital display equipment to cover your exhibition requirements.

Please contact joanna@cameronlogistics.co.uk directly for all print related enquiries.

COURIER, DELIVERIES & COLLECTIONS, STORAGE & FORKLIFTING

For all stand materials deliveries and collections we strongly advise you do not send anything to the venue, please use our appointed contractor Cameron Event Logistics their services will ensure your delivery will be made to stand in-line with our timelines.

CEL offer Pre/Post Event Storage at their local warehouse allowing you greater flexibility and more time to get your shipment ready for collection.

Stand clearance and empty case storage is also available upon request, contact us for a quotation.

At Breakdown, all material MUST be removed from Venue, no material can be left overnight.

CEL can remove material that has failed on-site collection. We will remove and return to our warehouse for subsequent uplift.

Please liaise with CEL directly regarding your logistics requirements via the red hyperlink below

All FORKLIFTING requirements must be booked through CEL.

To comply with Venue Insurance and Health and Safety requirements, no mechanical handling equipment may be used on the venue premises.

Please contact stevie@cameronlogistics.co.uk if you require forklift assistance.
