

Partners in Integrity

The Importance of Global Collaboration for Responsible Research: A South African and UK Perspective

bristol.ac.uk

Liam McKervey

Eleni Flack-Davison

The importance of building global partnerships

Commonality of the challenges we face

South African and UK Research
Integrity Landscape

Introduction

Research
Misconduct as a vehicle to work collaboratively

Steps towards best practice

Navigate the known and unknown issues

Identify expertise within organisations

Forming Global Partnerships

Acknowledge and addressing power
imbalances

The UK Landscape

The South African Landscape

Global research – Issues and Challenges

Who is responsible?

Lack of capacity for local expertise to inform the culture of ethics and integrity

No forum for benefit sharing of ideas and improving process

Inability to implement a lessons learnt approach

Towards Best Practice

CREATING A FORUM TO BETTER UNDERSTAND OUR PARTNERS PROFESSIONAL SERVICE LANDSCAPE

HIGHLIGHT THE COMMONALITY OF ISSUES ENCOUNTERED

EXPLORE POTENTIAL FUTURE LINKS

DEVELOP BEST PRACTICE GUIDANCE TO SHARE WITH COLLEAGUES

LOOK AT EXISTING FORUMS/NETWORKS THAT ARE THE WORKING WELL

Final Thoughts

CREATE A SPACE/FORUM TO REVIEW AND INFLUENCE PROCESSES

UNDERSTAND AND EMBRACE DIFFERENT APPROACHES TO RESEARCH
INTEGRITY

COSTING AND INVESTING IN CAPACITY BUILDING

EXCELLENT
RESEARCH
MANAGEMENT TO FACILITATE SUCCESS

Thank you and questions

Liam McKervey
Eleni Flack-Davison