

Final Program

Ordinary Cities in Exceptional Times

24-26.08.2022

Harokopio University
ATHENS GREECE

PROFESSIONAL CONGRESS ORGANIZER

CONVIN S.A.
29 Kosta Varnali St., 15233, Chalandri
Athens, Greece

Tel: +30 210 6833600
Fax: +30 210 6847700
 www.convin.gr

Congress Correspondence & Updates info@RC21athens2022.com www.RC21athens2022.com

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Keynote Panels.....	4
Round Tables.....	6
Book Discussions.....	9
Paper Presentations Panels No.1 – No. 47.....	10

Urban and Regional Development

Organizing Institutions

Harokopio University
of Athens

National Technical (Metsovio) University of Athens (NTUA)

- National Technical (Metsovio) University of Athens (NTUA)
Patision Complex | 42, Patision Str. Entrance from Stournari Str.
- Harokopeio University
70, El. Venizelou Str., Kalithea

KEYNOTE PANELS

Wednesday, 24 August 2022

Time		Room
16.00 – 17.30	NTUA	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Opening Plenary | Keynote Panel I

Questioning the ordinary and the exceptional in crises

María Luisa Méndez, Antonis Vradis

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Harokopeio	Main Auditorium	Level 1

Keynote Panel II

Articulations of global processes and crises in cities

Simone Tulumello, Eric Verdeil

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Harokopeio	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Keynote Panel III

Mediterranean counter-hegemonic politics: Beyond 'ordinary' urban crises?

Begüm Özden Fırat, Nikolas Kosmatopoulos, Gabriele Proglia

KEYNOTE PANELS

Friday, 26 August 2022

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Harokopeio	Main Auditorium	Level 1

Keynote Panel IV

Multi-scalar borders and their urban reproductions and contestations

Olga Lafazani, Nando Sigona, Martina Tazzioli

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Harokopeio	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Keynote Panel V

Precarity in research: Exceptional or a (not so new) ordinary

Aggeliki Demertzi, Nelli Kambouri, Vaso Makrygianni, Dimitris Pettas, Eleni Triantafillopoulou

ROUND TABLES

Wednesday, 24 August 2022

Time		Room
18.00 – 19.30	NTUA	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Round Table I

It was never 'normal': The disruptive powers of urban African everyday to urban development thinking

Convener: Carmel Rawhani, Nadine Appelhans

Participants

Oluwafemi Olajide, AbdouMaliq Simone, Mercy Brown Luthango

Time		Room
18.00 – 19.30	NTUA	Amphitheater 002	Level 0

Round Table II

Redefining the resilient and just city in times of "crisis" and "normalcy": A transatlantic and transdisciplinary conversation.

Convener: Angeliki Paidakaki (KU Leuven)

Invited speakers: Andreanecia Morris (Greater New Orleans Housing Alliance), Flozell Daniels (Foundation for Louisiana), Lazaros Petromelidis (Greek Housing Network), Nefeli- Myrto Pandiri (ARSIS), Nik Theodore (University of Illinois at Chicago)

ROUND TABLES

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Harokopeio	A4	Level 1

Round Table III

The technopolitics of mobility regimes: the exceptional as the ordinary in the contemporary city

Conveners: Bianca Freire-Medeiros, Deborah Fromm

Chair: Deborah Fromm

Participants:

"Big politics, marginal histories and power regimes in the urban margins", Nicholas Pope

"From surveillance cameras to street banners: on different scales of technopolitical devices since São Paulo, Brazil", Janaína Maldonado

Discussant: Gabriel Feltran

ROUND TABLES

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Harokopeio	B1	Level - 1

Round Table IV

European urban studies and the 'European city' in the era of postcolonial comparative urbanism

Conveners:

Claire Colomb, University College London, Bartlett School of Planning

Yuri Kazepov, University of Vienna, Department of Sociology

Sonia Arbaci, University College London, Bartlett School of Planning

Contributors:

- Introduction

Prof. Claire Colomb (UCL Bartlett School of Planning), Prof. Yuri Kazepov (University of Vienna), Dr Sonia Arbaci (UCL Bartlett School of Planning)

- Is there (still) such a thing as the 'European city'?

Prof. Patrick le Galès (Sciences Po Paris / CNRS) reflecting on his book European Cities (Oxford University Press, 2002), twenty years on

- Enriching European urban studies from "the South"

Prof. Thomas Maloutas (Harokopion University of Athens)

- Enriching European urban studies from "the East"

Dr Slavka Ferencuhová (Czech Academy of Science, Institute of Sociology)

Dr Anna Zhelnina (University of Helsinki, Helsinki Institute of Urban and Regional Studies)

- The post-/decolonial critique and the call for global comparative urbanism: what does it mean for scholars of European cities and how should they engage?

- Questions and debate with the audience

BOOK DISCUSSIONS

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Harokopeio	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Book discussion

Handbook on Urban Social Policies. International Perspectives on Multilevel Governance and Local Welfare

Eduardo Barberis (University of Urbino), Roberta Cucca (Norwegian University of Life Science), Yuri Kazepov (University of Vienna), Enrica Morlicchio (University of Naples), Walter Nicholls (University of California), Hilary Silver (Brown University)

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Harokopeio	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Book discussion

Stolen Cars: a journey through São Paulo's urban conflict

Conveners: Gabriel Feltran (University of Sao Carlos, Sao Carlos, Brazil) and Janaina Maldonado (University of Hamburg, Hamburg, Germany)

Friday, 26 August 2022

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Harokopeio	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Book discussion

Vertical cities

Conveners: Thomas Maloutas, Nikolaos Karadimitriou

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Harokopeio	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Book discussion D

Housing as commons Housing Alternatives as Response to the current crisis

Conveners: Stavros Stavrides (NTUA), Penny Travlou (University of Edinburgh)

Paper Presentations Panels No.1 – No. 47

- 01. Conceptualizing temporalities of crisis and action in European cities. The case of conflicts and debates around urban development models
- 02. Contested property relations: Landed property regimes and housing precarity amid the Covid-19 pandemic
- 03. Cultural flagships: pathways, practices and politics of an urban intervention
- 04. Decolonising urban knowledge(s): an ordinary imperative in extraordinary times
- 05. De-Privatizing Municipal Services and Public Infrastructures: Instituting Urban Commonfare?
- 06. Discretionary at work in urban/local contexts: street level bureaucrats between institutional and organizational constraints and their individual agency
- 07. Documenting and representing the infrastructuring of arrival in ordinary cities
- 08. Entrepreneurialism from below: governance and neoliberalism in the peripheries
- 09. Everyday crisis, beyond the eventful
- 10. Everyday infrastructural negotiations: Ordinary people and exceptional struggles in the Southern cities context
- 11. (Extra)Ordinary lives between the camp and the city. Refugees' mobilities and translocality in and beyond Europe
- 12. Failing urbanisms: Everyday life in the neighborhoods of incomplete urban regeneration projects
- 13. Global Corporate Landlords and Tenants' Struggles in the Post-pandemic City
- 14. Homelessness since Covid-19
- 15. Housing hybridity in the 'North': decoding the ordinary informality in the conventional housing systems
- 16. Housing systems and their implications in the Global North, South, and East
- 17. Intersectionality and housing struggles: Liberating housing at the intersection of race, gender, class and other forms of structural inequalities
- 18. Law and Ordering the Urban
- 19. Migration and the right to housing: Racial capitalism, dispossession and contested urban space
- 20. More-than-human urban politics
- 21. Negotiating the pandemic city: the precariously housed and their practices of inhabitation during COVID-19
- 22. Neighbourhood residents in vulnerable circumstances: Crisis, stress and coping mechanism
- 23. Nurturing urban solidarities in exceptional times
- 24. Ordinarily Massive: Revitalizing Approaches to Large Scale Urbanization
- 25. Ordinary urban political institutions and the multiple exceptionalities of our times

26. Peripheralisation: The production of ex-centric places as an ordinary process of extended urbanization
27. Queering Urban Space – Instability, Displacement, Resistance
28. Reimagining Urban Infrastructure through Spatial Occupation
29. Reorganising Work: On the spatial fragmentation of work and new flexible work infrastructures in small and medium-sized cities
30. Resilience and research in ordinary cities during crises
31. Shrinking but Livable? Local agency and bottom-up initiatives in shrinking cities
32. Starting from the queer: LGBTQi+ spatialities as commons (under the topics raised by panel 27)
33. The Challenge of Urban Poverty in Cities of the Global South and of the Global North
34. The right to housing in exceptional times
35. The right to housing in exceptional times: struggles for more equitable housing
36. The role of the spatial in struggles to belong for racialized and ethnicized persons
37. Towards new urban economies in the post-pandemic society? Digital and social infrastructures for the embeddedness of the urban economy
38. Transnationalizing Deindustrialization Studies: Causes and Impacts in Ordinary Cities
39. Twisting territorial stigmatization
40. (Un)exceptional Neighbourhoods: Transforming, Contesting and Reclaiming the Socialist-Modernist Large Housing Estates
41. Up and around. Climate change, élités and ecological gentrification
42. Urban insecurity: illegal markets and informal governance
43. Urban migrant citizenship and (post)covid-19
44. Urbanization of the Commodities Boom: Across Local/Global and Urban/Rural Divides
45. Variegated densities; politics of density discourse in peri-urban regions
46. “What’s law got to do with it?”: the formal and informal regulation of urban dynamics
47. Youth’s making, shaping and reclaiming urban spaces

Panel No.01

Conceptualizing temporalities of crisis and action in European cities. The case of conflicts and debates around urban development models

Conveners: Deborah Galimberti, Marc Pradel

Centre Emile Durkheim (Sciences Po Bordeaux), France

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.01

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Emergency in the Longue Durée

Maria Kouvari

The temporal politics of a manufactured crisis: urban renewal in Moscow

Anna Zhelnina

Scholarly pathways on post-pandemic urban sustainable mobility transitions

Carmen Perez del Pulgar

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	A1	Level 0

The issue of housing accessibility in densifying cities: Entangled housing and land-use policy limitations and insights from Oslo

Rebecca Cavicchia, Roberta Cucca

Urban future-making in times of crisis and urgency

Alessandra Manganelli

Growing independent: conflict and strategies of the independent art spaces in Milan

Marianna d'Ovidio, Cecilia Nessi, Laura Raccanelli

Panel No.02

Contested property relations: Landed property regimes and housing precarity amid the Covid-19 pandemic

Conveners: Marianne Maeckelbergh, Christina Sakali | University of Ghent, Ghent, Belgium

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.02

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	1.1	Level 1

Geographies of foreign housing investment in Greece: individual investors and small-scale dispersed housing properties

Dimitra Siatitsa, Maria Karagianni, Matina Kapsali

"Housing is nowhere to be found": omissions and exclusions in Greece's RRF proposal

Nikolaos Vrantzis

Housing precarity through the lens of governmental precarization:

(Re)distribution of protection and vulnerability during the Covid-19 pandemic

Christina Sakali

Property and its discontents: Challenging housing precarisation in pandemic-era Greece

Theodoros Karyotis

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	1.1	Level 1

Housing Financialization and Housing Precarity in Turkey

Dilek Karabulut

Tenant rights and property structures in post-homeownership societies

Lorenzo Vidal

Is property polarization giving way to diverging experiences of citizenship? Evidence from Europe and the United States

Carlos Delclós

Panel No.03

Cultural flagships: pathways, practices and politics of an urban intervention

Conveners: David Gogishvili, Julio Paulos | University of Lausanne, Lausanne, Switzerland

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.03

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A5	Level 0

Cultural flagships as global urban forms

Beyond Image Architecture. Museum Architecture and Regional Identity Formation in Small Towns in Austria, Germany, Liechtenstein and Switzerland

Karen van den Berg, Janine Schiller, Eva Zepp

Exploring the links between transnational architects and local flagship projects

Davide Ponzini, Zachary M. Jones

Rise of the global cultural capitalism and its global urban dimension

David Gogishvili, Martin Müller

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	A5	Level 0

Conceptualizing cultural flagships

Nantes, Iconic Palimpsest – From Landmark to Flagship

Agnès Klöden-Billemont

Turning nature into a cultural urban brand: The historic production of local green identities through the Green Belt, Vitoria-Gasteiz

Julia Neidig

Ways of intertwining city and literature: iconic urban symbols from the field of literature

Milica Resanovic

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.03

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A5	Level 0

Culture-led urban regeneration(s)

Urban Transformations of Former Industrial Neighborhoods: Scrutinising urban networks – a comparison of Savamala (Belgrade) and NDSM Wharf (Amsterdam)

Kostica Dragana

Consuming Istanbul: Galataport

Aysegul Can

Opening new public spaces: the role of social media in shaping the cultural ecosystem of Milan, Italy

Federica Antonucci, Valeria Marina Borodi, Marianna d'Ovidio, Michela Voglino

Panel No.04

Decolonising urban knowledge(s): an ordinary imperative in extraordinary times

Conveners: Catalina Ortiz | University College London, London, United Kingdom,
Penny Travlou | ESALA, Edinburgh College of Art/University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK,
Elizabeth Sweet | University of Massachusetts Boston, Boston, United States,
Giulia Testori | Joint Research Centre - European Commission,
Raksha Vasudevan | Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, United States,
Marina Toneli Siqueira Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina, Florianópolis, Brazil

Thursday, 25 August 2022			Panel No.04
Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A2	Level 0

Decolonising Research and Pedagogy

Design as Decolonial Urban Praxis

Fatina Abreek-Zubiedat, Petros Phokaides

Theorizing the Anthropocene: the subaltern still speaks

Leon Morenas

Decolonizing urban knowledge through teaching collaboration

Julie Ren, Hanna Hilbrandt

Tuning into an empathetic future beyond epistemic injustice: multi-temporality, decolonial futures, spaces of safety and deep listening

Khadijah Carberry

Dirty Research: A manifesto for decolonising the process of urban knowledge production

Tanzil Shafique

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	A2	Level 0

Decolonising urban strategies and methods

Insisting on everyday life. Methodological remarks studying places of childhood

Zoi Karampini

Logistics as method and resistance: circulation and popular infrastructures in Argentina

Leandro Minuchin

Understanding Urban Transformation at the Body’s Scale, or How Women from the Favelas Aquilombam the City of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Anne-marie Veillette

Design as Prompt: Experiments in Pluriversal Politics and Southern Urban Practice

Anu Sabhlok, Jitesh Malik, Abohar Urban Fellows AUF

Time	Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A2	Level 0

Southern urban framings

Studying the overstudied: 'academic extractivism', grassroots resentment and distancing from the elites in Chile's 'Poblaciones Emblemáticas'

Javier Ruiz-tagle, Francisca Moraga, Trinidad Mujica, Laura Orlando, Amanda Toro

Hybrid Pedagogies for Knowledge Co-Production, Trans-local Solidarity and Community Development

Natacha Quintero González

Building Knowledge: The challenges of creating a 'Southern' frame for urban planning pedagogy

Neha Sami, Ruchiika Lall, Shriya Anand

Situating care through counter-hegemonic protest: An understanding of women solidarity from urban margins of India

Raktim Ray, Ufaque Paiker, Srilata Sircar

Time	Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A2	Level 0

New urban vocabularies

Decentering debates on culture in cities beyond the West: alternative perspectives from Istanbul

Violante Torre

Decolonising Local Planning: Language, articulation, representation Propositions from Chittur-Thathamangalam, Kerala, India

Jayaraj Sundaresan, Malini Krishnankutty

Black Utopia in Europe: Investigating the potential of alternative utopias for marginalized city makers

Miryam Bah

Activist infrastructures and commoning "from below" The case of Cheetah Camp, Mumbai

Lalitha Kamath, Purva Dewoolkar

Recognising, resisting, repairing. Situating urbanism in postcrisis Santiago de Chile

Paola Jiron

Panel No.05

De-Privatizing Municipal Services and Public Infrastructures: Instituting Urban Commonfare?

Conveners: Markus Kip, Silke van Dyk | University of Jena, Jena, Germany

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.05

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	B1	Level -1

A: Basic Goods and Services

Introduction to Session 5. Framing Questions and Hypotheses

Silke van Dyk and Markus Kip

Democratization through Co-Production? Food and Healthcare as common goods

Theresa Zanders, Susanna Raab

Remunicipalisation of Izmir's local food chains as critical infrastructure

Sezen Türkoğlu, Hazal Ertem, Koray Velibeyoğlu

Hostile property landscapes and housing commons: a cross-scalar perspective in Brazil, Germany and the Netherlands

Daniel Bossuyt

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	B1	Level -1

B: Water

Co-management of Water in the Remunicipalised Companies of Paris and Naples

Vanessa Mascia Turri

From Remunicipalisation to Re-commoning: Radical Imaginaries Shifting Urban Water Governance

Dona Geagea

Re-municipalisation of Urban Water Services between resistance and re-appropriation

Gemma Gasseau

Water service governance in Caracas, Venezuela: An urban commons or creeping privatization?

Rebecca Mcmillan

Splitting urban waters: water remunicipalisation in Barcelona as discursive battlefield between public and private actors (2015-2021)

Lucia Alexandra Popartan

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	B1	Level -1

C: Public Commons Partnerships in Barcelona

Social inequalities and commons internal governance

Marina Pera

Community-based initiatives for sustainable cities and urban regeneration in Barcelona: conflicts in defining ecological transition

Marc Pradel Miquel

Democratic deepening and decommodification processes in urban governance relations: Potentials, constraints and challenges of community-based management practices in the case of Barcelona

Maria Victoria Sanchez Belando

Democratising the practice of community asset transfer. The case of the Citizen Assets programme in Barcelona

Iolanda Bianchi

Panel No.06

Discretionary at work in urban/local contexts: street level bureaucrats between institutional and organizational constraints and their individual agency

Conveners: Alberta Andreotti, Diego Coletto | Department of Sociology and Social Research, University of Milan - Bicocca, Milano, Italy

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.06

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	B2	Level -1

Changes in urban regeneration policy – the viewpoint of local practitioners in Lisbon

Rosa Branco, Sónia Alves

Implementing integration policy in Sweden: What challenges do Swedish street-level bureaucrats face and what coping strategies do they employ in their encounters with newly-arrived immigrants?

Isabell Schierenbeck, Andrea Spehar

“We try to shake structures from below” – How ‘street-level bureaucrats’ become agents of diversity-oriented organisational change

Cornelia Tippel, Heike Hanhörster, Nils Hans

Inside the local contexts: practices of policy implementation at the Street-level

Anna Rio

Judges in local courts: delivering justice under challenging managerial conditions

Émilien Colaux, Nathalie Schiffino-Leclercq, Stéphane Moyson

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	B2	Level -1

“There is competition among schools and a sense of entitlement within families”: School principals’ agency and the legitimacy of parental choice in Germany and The Netherlands

Isabel Ramos Lobato, Willem Boterman

Comparing multilevel governance of social assistance policies in two Brazilian metropolises

Renata Bichir, Maria Fernanda Aguilar Lara, Adriana Aranha

The changing rules of local welfare: Territorial disparities and welfare policy institutions in times of new socio-ecological risks in Austria and the United Kingdom

Tatjana Boczy

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.06

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	B2	Level -1

The police as a state actor of the migration governance landscape: the case of pre-trial detention

Ismi Mathioudaki

Governing marginality through everyday practices of the street level bureaucrats

Tünde Virág

Losing trust, losing clients: how Covid-19 and social distancing affected frontline work with marginalized clients in Berlin

Nina Margies, Daniela Krüger, Henrik Lebuhn, Talja Blokland

Operationalization and maintenance of sanitation infrastructure: a case study of street-level bureaucrats in the millennial city, Gurugram

Sumedha Priyadarshini

Panel No.07

Documenting and representing the infrastructuring of arrival in ordinary cities

Conveners: Bruno Meeus, Karel Arnaut | University of Leuven, Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology, Leuven, Belgium

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.07

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A2	Level 0

Movement Beyond the Pathway: Exploring the field of Irregular Migration through an Ethnographic Dialogue

Shila Anaraki, Aso Mohammadi

Migrants and the ordinary city: Analysing private rental tenure (PRT) as an arrival infrastructure in inner-city Santiago, Chile

Carolina Moore

Space or practice? The making and unmaking of 'home' and 'neighborhood' through urban arrival infrastructures

Anna Steigemann

Migrants in old train wagons in Thessaloniki. From abandonment to infrastructures of communing

Zacharias Valiantzas, Paschalis Arvanitidis

"Sometimes people call me from the other end of Germany" – Understanding arrival infrastructures through mapping

Miriam Nessler, Heike Hanhörster

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A2	Level 0

Migrants' hostels (foyers) in the infrastructuring of arrival of West Africans in the region of Paris

Laura Guérin, Aïssatou Mbodj-Pouye

Mapped to see: the productive value of a spatial lens in the research on arrival infrastructures

Martina Bovo, Dounia Salamé

Follow the commutes: Commuting trajectories of migrant workers as lens to understand arrival infrastructures and infrastructuring practices beyond cities and neighborhoods

Carolien Lubberhuizen

Arriving in Peripheral Contexts – Spatial Patterns of Accessing Arrival Infrastructures

Nihad El-Kayed

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.07

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	A2	Level 0

The Dual Devolution of Migration Policy: Examining Local and Sub-Federal Regulations of Migration Infrastructures

Edward Mohr

Infrastructures of arrival in East German Large Housing Estates – sites of negotiation between inclusion and bordering practices

Madlen Pilz, Stefanie Röbler, Katja Friedrich

Institutional Analysis and Mapping of “infrastructuring practices”. The case of two small cities in Central Greece

George Papagiannitsis, Paschalis Arvanitidis, Aimilia Voulvouli, Athina-Zoe Desli

Infrastructures of abandonment and arrival: Refugees and processes of ruination, displacement, and dispossession in a disempowered city

Cansu Civelek, Ayşe Çağlar

Panel No.08

Entrepreneurialism from below: governance and neoliberalism in the peripheries

Conveners: Mara Nogueira | Birkbeck, University of London, London, United Kingdom,
Gareth A. Jones, Aiko Ikemura Amaral | LSE, London, United Kingdom

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.08

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	3.1	Level 3

The emergence of peripheral entrepreneurship in Brazil Leonardo Fontes
Cable infrastructures and citizenship

Suyash Barve

Insurgent Entrepreneurialism at the urban periphery during COVID-19

Aiko Ikemura Amaral, Gareth A. Jones, Mara Nogueira

The emergence of peripheral entrepreneurship in Brazil

Leonardo Fontes

Getting things Done: Brokers, Boosters and Entrepreneurial Entities in Urbanizing India

Sophia Abbas

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	3.1	Level 3

Popular entrepreneurship in recent Brazil

Henrique Costa

Rent as management of housing precarity: entrepreneurialism, public policies and territorial violence

Isadora De Andrade Guerreiro, Raquel Rolnik

Grassroots organizations co-implementing World Bank sponsored housing programs in Mexico. Role, strategies, tensions and ambivalences

Luisa Escobar

Panel No.09

Everyday crisis, beyond the eventful

Conveners: Ifigeneia Dimitrakou, Julie Ren | University of Zurich, Zürich, Switzerland

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.09

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A4	Level 0

Everyday atmospheres of (counter)terrorism in Birmingham

Carrie Benjamin

Everyday mobility crisis in Tehran: an insight into individual experience of common extreme situations

Sara Mesgarpour Tousi

From ordinary cities to ordinary crises: learning from diverse forms of agency and resistance to everyday crises in Istanbul, São Paulo and Saint Petersburg

Mathilde Moaty, Olga Suslova, Youenn Gourrain

Beirut: ongoing crises. Resistance, Resilience?

Maria Gabriella Trovato, Balsam El Arss

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A4	Level 0

How repeated unpredictability shapes inequality: Exploring the time-space of short-term workers in Seoul, South Korea

Yoonai Han

Modes of exceptionality: event and everyday life in Acapulco, Mexico

Alejandro De Coss Corzo, Ben Anderson, Hector Becerril Miranda

The rhythmic micro-politics of urban precarity: dispossession, displacement, and everyday crises of reproduction in contemporary Delhi (1980s – 2010s)

Debolina Majumder

Everyday lives in precarity. Exploring the urban youth in Athens, a capital of crisis

Eleni Triantafyllopoulou

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.09

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	A4	Level 0

Is there dignity in the responses to everyday crisis?

Elena Trubina, Katrin Grossmann

Everyday collective care, mourning and healing in the “new normal”: An ethnographic account from Athens (Greece)

Isabel Gutierrez Sanchez

Everyday Proper Politics: Rethinking Spaces of Health and Care Amidst Everyday Urban Crises

Cristina Temenos

Panel No.10

Everyday infrastructural negotiations: Ordinary people and exceptional struggles in the Southern cities context

Conveners: Leon Felipe Tellez Contreras | The University of Sheffield, Sheffield, United Kingdom, Debapriya Chakrabarti | The University of Manchester, Manchester, United Kingdom

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No. 10

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	2.1	Level 2

Struggling over the heart of the city: local movements and trade unions and the privatization of the port of Piraeus

Gerasimos Karoulas, Nicos Souliotis, Margarita Komninou, Alex Afouxenidis

By the River Hooghly, a city is made and remade: Labour, river and the production of everyday urban spaces along Kolkata's Ghats

Raina Ghosh

Three-wheeled mobile political capital and livelihoods in the midst of dichotomous urban transport infrastructure

Maria Jose Nieto Combariza

Regulating infrastructure from below: 20 years of politico-legal battles in Mexico City's public markets

Leon Felipe Tellez Contreras

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	2.1	Level 2

Everyday negotiations with infrastructure and municipal services in Kolkata's inner-city Kumartuli neighbourhood

Debapriya Chakrabarti

Living with sanitation failures: Embodied experiences of fragile infrastructures in Lilongwe, Malawi

Cecilia Alda Vidal, Deljana Iossifova, Alison L. Browne

Doing sanitation, doing and undoing enclosures in cramped spaces: Insights from two marginalised communities in downtown Shanghai

Stylianios Zavos, Deljana Iossifova, Youcao Ren

Manufacturing open defecation free cities: Punishing people and collapsing toilets, unpacking paradoxes of Mumbai's sanitation landscape

Purva Dewoolkar

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No. 10

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	2.1	Level 2

En)slaving in/against Elite Infrastructures: Repositioning 'slave' legacies in contemporary infrastructure projects in Colombo

Ipshita Basu, Nirmani Liyanage

Configurations of Fragmented Infrastructure: The Case of Nicosia Situated at the Global North-South Interface

Andreas Panagidis

Panel No.11

(Extra)Ordinary lives between the camp and the city. Refugees' mobilities and translocality in and beyond Europe

Conveners: Ms. Eva Papatzani | National Technical University of Athens, Department of Urban and Regional Planning, Athens, Greece, Benjamin Etzold | Bonn International Centre for Conflict Studies (BICC), Bonn, Germany

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No. 11

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	1.2	Level 1

Migration governance and urban change in Southern Europe. An ethnographic perspective on reception systems, urban conflicts and segregation in Athens and Turin

Erasmus Sossich

Making Town in and Beyond the Camp in South and Central Africa

Cristina Udelsmann Rodrigues, Patience Mususa, Karen Büscher, Stéphanie Perazzone

Inhabiting through encampment. Refugees' livelihood in the surroundings of Tiburtina Railway Station in Rome and beyond

Lorenzo Mauloni

Panel No.12

Failing urbanisms: Everyday life in the neighborhoods of incomplete urban regeneration projects

Conveners: Bahar Sakizlioglu | Institute of Housing and Urban Development Studies, Rotterdam, Netherlands, Ebru Soytemel | Aston University, Birmingham, United Kingdom

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No. 12

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A4	Level 0

Olympic Ruins: promises and temporalities of the infrastructures of the Olympic Rio

Ana Clara Chequetti Da Rocha Duarte

Mismatched ambition and capacity of urban regeneration in small cities: A case study of South Street project in Anyang, China

Ran Wei

The dialectics of regeneration and degeneration: taking a long view perspective on incomplete social housing estate regeneration in London

Paul Watt

"Waiting for transformation": Politics of waiting as a mode of governance in protracted urban renewal projects

Deniz Ay, Mehmet Penpecioglu

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	A4	Level 0

Inhabiting the fault line: "local" residents and "transient" dwellers' perspectives on urban redevelopment failure in Fikirtepe, Istanbul

Francesco Pasta

Struggling to live by the seashore: Negotiations in post-tsunami housing reconstruction in Chennai

Raquel Silva

Broken Promises: securitisation through marketisation in diyarbakir, Turkey

Firat Genç

Rationalisation of informal housings and operations within middle-income neighbourhoods: A focus on Nairobi city Kenya

Eunice Nthambi Jimmy

Looking Beyond the Pacified Scenario of Urban Regeneration. Parco Dora: A Turin Case Study

Sara Caramaschi, Daniela Morpurgo

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.12

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A4	Level 0

“Is solving the wrong problems a failure?”. Stigmatization and displacement as local outcomes of the Italian approach of urban regeneration of peripheral neighborhoods. An analysis of the regenerative interventions in via Milano and surrounding districts (Brescia, Italy)

Marco Alioni, Cristiano Martinelli

From failed rehabilitation to unplanned touristification – neo-patrimonial privatisation and illiberal regulation in post-socialist Budapest

Gergely Olt, Adrienne Csizmady

Promises and implementation tricks: inclusionary housing in Brazilian consortial urban operations

Simone Guerresi, Paula Santoro

Notions of time in a neighbourhood destined for state-led regeneration

Hila Zaban

Panel No.13

Global Corporate Landlords and Tenants' Struggles in the Post-pandemic City

Conveners: Javier Gil, Lorenzo Vidal, Miguel A. Martínez | Uppsala University, Uppsala, Sweden

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.13

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	B3	Level -1

Financialization in the backyards. GLC in eastgerman peripheral housing estates

Matthias Bernt

Who does the globalization of the housing market leave behind?

Consequences of fast changes in ownership in Husby, Sweden

Carina Listerborn, Defne Kadioglu

Political alienation in processes of “renovictions” in the case of Basel

Luisa Gehriger

The slow ascent of housing financialisation in Greece

Philipp Katsinas

The politics of law and economy: struggles for the socialization of housing in Berlin

Joanna Kusiak

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	B3	Level -1

“Paris” as an asset class: the value of the past in the financialization of historic residential buildings

Francesca Artioli, Pierre Wokuri

The rise of the Corporate Landlords in Latin America

Adriana Marin

Tenant Activism at the Intersections of Rentier and Platform Capitalism

Sophia Maalsen, Benai Pham, Dallas Rogers, Peta Wolifson

The real estate financial complex in Spain after the 2008 housing crisis

Jordi Gonzalez

Housing Politics from the Streets to the Statehouse:

Comparing Policies and Movements in Los Angeles and Berlin 2008-2020

Kenton Card

Panel No.14

Homelessness since Covid-19

Conveners: Hilary Silver | George Washington University, Washington, USA,
Laura Colini | Tesseræ Urban Social Research, Berlin, Germany

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.14

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	B1	Level -1

Covid-19 as a crisis of access: Infrastructure practices of unhoused persons in Berlin during the pandemic

Andrea Protschky

Tracking flukes: Urban sustainable everyday spatialities of homelessness in Covid-19 São Paulo

Fraya Frehse, Ignacio Castillo, Caio Reis

Not exceptional enough? the homeless, civil society, and the state in Delhi

Devaki Nambiar

The principle of less eligibility in housing markets

Francois Bonnet

Panel No.15

Housing hybridity in the 'North': decoding the ordinary informality in the conventional housing systems

Conveners: Jakub Galuszka | Technical University Of Berlin/University Of Oxford/LAVUE,
Berlin, Germany

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.15

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	B2	Level -1

Conversions: the emerging informalisation of housing in the Global North

Romola Sanyal, Mara Ferreri

Housing goes home: new residential landscapes and informality in the European periphery. The post-Yugoslav experience

Sonja Lakić

Governing informal housing in the context of urban financialisation-case studies in Taipei, Taiwan

Ying-chun Hou

Russian informal settlements: morphology and reasons behind the spread

Daria Maltseva

Panel No.16

Housing systems and their implications in the Global North, South, and East

Conveners: Oksana Zaporozhets | Institute for European Urban Studies, Bauhaus University
Weimar, Weimar, Germany
Daria Volkova | Institute for European Urban Studies, Bauhaus University Weimar, Weimar, Germany

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.16

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	B3	Level -1

Negotiating the Urban Housing System in Small Cities in China: Aspirations of Homeownership and Family Reproduction among Rural Migrants in Jiaonan, Qingdao Metropolitan Region

Haoyu Zhao, Felicity CHAN

Family Networks and Re-distribution of Housing Resources in Russia. A Complicated Story

Varvara Kobyshcha

Housing pathways of migrants in southern Europe. Preliminary considerations on Bologna case study

Maria Grazia Montesano

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	B3	Level -1

On portfolios and (state) spaces of financialization. Exploring Brazilian securitization in the twenty first century

Marlon Altavini De Abreu, Jeroen Johannes Klink

The role of municipalities in promoting housing affordability: An analysis of local governance in three Finnish cities

Elina Sutela

The role of housing policies in the Brussels' housing crisis

Mats Lucia Bayer

Panel No.17

Intersectionality and housing struggles: Liberating housing at the intersection of race, gender, class and other forms of structural inequalities

Conveners: Ana Vilenica | DIST, Polytechnic and University of Turin, Italy, Beyond Inhabitation Lab and Radical Housing Journal

Michele Lancione | DIST, Polytechnic and University of Turin, Italy, Beyond Inhabitation Lab and Radical Housing Journal

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No. 17

Time	Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	Main Auditorium	Level 1

Which struggle? Multiple forms of resistance to eviction programs in Abidjan

Andrea Guida

Housing Newcomers in Brussels: Infrastructuring cross-sectoral spaces of inclusion through coalition building

Tasneem Nagi, Heleen Verheyden, Luce Beeckmans, Viviana d'Auria

The Right to Stay Put in One's Neighborhood: The Houses of Pons i Gallarza

Carla Rivera Blanco

Intersectional cartographies: multiple socio-territorial conflicts accentuated in downtown São Paulo

Laisa Stroher, Paula Santoro, Henrique Canan

Time	Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	Main Auditorium	Level 1

The struggle for problematising housing (in Italy): reflections from Naples, Turin and beyond

Simone Tulumello

Paying for housing, paying for sex: exploring the missing intersections of housing struggles and sex work

Daniela Morpurgo

Radicalizing responsibility: housing struggles at the intersection of care, accountability and political engagement

Hanna Hilbrandt, Ifigeneia Dimitrakou, Luca Pattaroni

'Building Back Better': How urban regeneration and post-pandemic recovery processes remain racialized

Hannah Haycox, Emma Hill, Nissa Finney, Nasar Meer, Sharon Leahy

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No. 17

Time	Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	Main Auditorium	Level 1

Housing Struggle as Feminist Struggle: The men are talking because everyone else is burnt out

Meg Bishop, Abi O'Connor

Migration, squatting and the temporality of housing struggles in Rome

Chiara Cacciotti

The politics of marginality in historical perspective: A meta-analysis on the knowledge production around Chile's 'Poblaciones Emblematicas'

Alejandra Luneke, Javier Ruiz-Tagle, Trinidad Mujica

Claiming the Right to the City: Social Movement as a Field of Contestation and Relationship

Oluwafemi Olajide

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No. 17

Time	Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	Main Auditorium	Level 1

Engaged fun. Ordinary struggles and uplifting sociality from Port Elizabeth backyards, South Africa

Marta Montanini

A home for me. Women empowerment through homeownership in developing countries

Dinorah Gonzalez, Paloma Giottonini

Assemblies in radical housing projects: challenges and contradictions of the micropolitics of collective living

Josefina Jaureguiberry Mondion

The role of black women in urban housing struggles in Brazil: a case study of a land occupation in the state of São Paulo

Thalles Breda

Time	Room
13.30 – 15.30	Main Building	Main Auditorium	Level 1

Muslim Neighborhoods: Between Peripheralization and Informality

Zehra Mahdi

Gendered struggles around pursuing social reproduction under the threat of displacement

Bahar Sakizlioglu

Rejecting crisis, reclaiming agency - On the simultaneity of rupture and familiarity in times of (climate) crisis

Charlotte Huch, Alexa Agoropoulos

Intersectionality and creative resistances in urban peripheries. A research action in City of Mexico, and Buenos Aires

Chryssanthi Petropoulou, Vasilis Georgakopoulos, Konstantinos Zafeiris

Panel No.18

Law and Ordering the Urban

Conveners: Sahil Sasidharan | Department of Geography, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, United States, Gaurav Mittal | Ambedkar University, Delhi, India, Chetan Anand | Department of Education, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, India

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No. 18

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Shrinking Public Mandates of Social Infrastructure in the Delhi Master Plan: Planning Regulations in Changing Land Markets

Poonam Prakash, Sudeshna Mitra

'Illegalities' and accretive displacement in Delhi, India

Saeed Ahmad

Urban informality, Property Rights, and Citizenship in Delhi's Elite Informal Settlements

Vivek Mishra

Law and Labour: Domestic Workers and the State in India

Nikita Audichya

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Education, Urban Order and the Informal-Illegal continuum

Jyoti Dalal

Desired landscapes of order in Danish public housing

Iben Holck

Imagining the city through legislation: plans and projects for the city of Rio de Janeiro since the enactment of the Brazilian 1988 Constitution

Ana Paula Soares Carvalho, Maria Alice Rezende de Carvalho, Taísa de Oliveira Amendola Sanches, Renata Thomaz Vieira Leite, Ligia Thomaz Vieira Leite

Law, order, and securitization in South Africa's exclusionary cities

Lily Manoim

Panel No.19

Migration and the right to housing: Racial capitalism, dispossession and contested urban space

Conveners: Sophie Gonick | New York University, New York, The United States of America

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.19

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A5	Level 0

How the struggle of working-class migrant women granted housing rights

Miguel A. Martinez, Javier Gil, Angela García, Inés G. Cueli

Identities of Dispossession: Immigrant Political Subjectivities at the Intersection of Deportation and Displacement

Ashley Hernandez, Walter Nicholls

Racialisation and profit accumulation in asylum accommodation: navigating Britain's housing logic and the refusal to be silenced

Aleksandra Hall

Panel No.20

More-than-human urban politics

Conveners: Rivke Jaffe | University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam, Netherlands, Francesca Pilo | Utrecht University, Utrecht, Netherlands

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.20

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A5	Level 0

“Repair is worse than a fire”: the technologies of major repair of mass housing estates in Kaliningrad, Russia

Daria Volkova

Leaf blowers, live streams, viral disease, and burning dumpsters: How non-human entities shaped protest dynamics during the George Floyd uprising in Portland, Oregon

Leanne Serbulo, Emiliano Zook

The rat, the weed and the urban clean: how to coexist with the unwanted?

Daniel Florentin, Emma Thébault

River and drain: the ambiguous politics of drainage infrastructure in Accra

Afra Foli

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A5	Level 0

The Politics of Technology among Street-based Sex. Workers in Bangalore

Anant Kamath, P. Neethi

Making a building political: unpacking more-than-human arrangements of built forms

Julio Paulos, Clotilde Trivin

Contested Coastal Urbanization in Muttukadu, India

Abhinand Krishnashankar

‘Show stoppers’ or actors with agency? Animals in planning practice

Sophie Schramm, Robert Barbarino, Katrin Gliemann

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	A5	Level 0

Repairing the Newtown Creek with Rain Gardens, Cemeteries and Bacteria

Liviu Chelcea

That (Extra)Ordinary Object of History: Aesthetic Politics of Brick in Lithuania

Anastasiya Halauniova

Governing the Contaminant: Politics of Tap Water Crisis in Tokyo

Yutaka Iwadate

Do contracts have politics?

Michiel Stapper

Materiality as a tool to shape sectarian identities? The municipalization of an electricity mini-grid in South Lebanon

Alix Chaplain

Panel No.21

Negotiating the pandemic city: the precariously housed and their practices of inhabitation during COVID-19

Conveners: Ratoola Kundu | Tata Institute of Social Sciences Mumbai, Mumbai, India, Paroj Banerjee | Development Planning Unit, University College London, London, United Kingdom

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.21

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Negotiating urban infrastructure during pandemic: Incongruity and fragmented linkages among Bengali-speaking Muslim migrants in Mumbai

Debangana Baruah

Housing as Care Infrastructure: Pandemic, Urban Poor and Inhabitation Practices in a Small Town

Anup Tripathi

Some reflections on the humanitarian tragedy of national containment in India, its apprehension and research practice

Rémi de Bercegol, Anthony Goreau Ponceaud

Urban governance, pandemics and the vulnerable: lessons from the past

Guy Baeten

Migrant workers and the carceral logic in Singapore: Governing bodies in/through home spaces

Laura Antona

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Pandemic in the Rain Baseras: Exploring the Politics of Shelter & Shelter Homes in Delhi (India)

Arushi Sahay

Locked Down: Home-based workers, housing precarity, and the politics of "self-reliance" in urban India during the Covid-19 Pandemic

Shoshana Goldstein

Safe in, unsafe out? Perceptions, reactions and implications of the pandemic among the residents of an asylum centre

Paolo Boccagni

Cooperatives as Agencies to Provide Livelihoods for the Refugees in Istanbul During the Covid-19 Pandemic

Nur Sultan Çırakman, Candost Aydın

Panel No.22

Neighbourhood residents in vulnerable circumstances: Crisis, stress and coping mechanism

Convener: Peer Smets | Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Amsterdam, Netherlands

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.22

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Mapping informal settlements as transition zones in the rural urban continuum - case studies from coimbatore, India

Mohammed Ali Sharieff, Laura Lieto

Towards a Sense of Community in the Fringes of Cities: a Qualitative Study in Almere Poort, the Netherlands

Francesca Ranalli

Informal Systems in a Southern European Urban Setting: Horticultural Practices as Urban Commons Inhabited by a Gift Economy

Paula Mota Santos

Reviving the terraces: the case of Ciutat Vella district (Barcelona, Spain)

Ana Belén Cano-hila, Montserrat Simó, Marc Pradel-Miquel

Why poor people leave state housing in South Africa: getting along or getting on?

Raffael Beier

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Micro-segregation and social mix. The case of four apartment blocks in Athens

Nikolina Myofa

Interactional bubbles and interstitial territorialities. The use of public space among university students

Alice Brombin

Il Tesoro di Gratosoglio. Exploring the neighbourhood with their citizens

Maria Cursach

Proximity healthcare during COVID-19: the experience of women caregivers in Zambia's informal settlements

Karena Groff, Amelia Seabold, Joaquin Benitez, Daniela Beltrame

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.22

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Children’s play and the pandemic in India’s informal settlements

Martina Maria Spies

Ethnic Residential Segregation in Milan: the Inaccessibility of Urban Spaces for Migrants

David Consolazio, David Benassi

Coping and Emotional trajectories in an unequal city: Gendered insights from the Pandemic in Mumbai

Richa Bhardwaj, Suchismita Chatterjee

Help thy neighbour. Neighbourhood relations, subjective well-being and trust during the COVID-19 pandemic

Christoph Zangger

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A6	Level 0

Making new urban subjects through redevelopment — A Case Study of Resettlement Housing Communities in Chengdu, China

Liubing Xie

Social Cohesion in Ethnically Diverse and Low-Income European Neighborhoods: The Importance of Inter-ethnic Ties

Rui Carvalho

A crisis is an opportunity, at least for those at the top - Assessing vulnerability and adaptation to the Covid-19 crisis in formal and informal neighbourhoods in Brazil

Alexandre Pereira Santos, Miguel Rodriguez Lopez, Md Nadiruzzaman

Slum Archipelago: from spatial imaginary to social reality

Rodrigo Limoeiro

Finding refuge in a warming world

Ana Terra Amorim Maia

Panel No.23

Nurturing urban solidarities in exceptional times

Conveners: Stijn Oosterlynck, Lise Dheedene, Elisabet Van Wymeersch | University of Antwerp, Antwerpen, Belgium

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.23

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	3.2	Level 3

(Dis)cohesion in urban neighbourhoods – negotiating solidarities in daily encounters

Angelina Göb, Peter Dirksmeier

Failed Solidarities: Crisis, Corona, and Networks of Mutual Aid in Turkey

Begüm Özden Fırat

Just filling the gap? Pro-migrant volunteering and the emergence of solidarities between majority society's members and immigrants in Milan

Maurizio Artero

Central movements and peripheral organisations of food sovereignty in Hungary

Luca Bródy

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	3.2	Level 3

The Production of Place-Based Solidarities in Urban Markets: The Case of İstanbul Fatih Çarşamba Street Market

Muhammet Esat Tiryaki

Seeing the visible and the invisible: Homelessness, poverty and community care in medium and small sized cities

Pinelopi Vergou

Transnational space of (non)autonomy: the case of Iranian feminist and queer activism

Maryam Lashkari

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	3.2	Level 3

Reconsidering religious solidarity in the secular city. A historical analysis of catholic urban solidarity in Brussels (1965-1970)

Els Minne

From Above, but Bottom up: Faith Based Solidarity Initiatives in the City

Sarah Maes, Marjan Morris, Mieke Schrooten, Bert Broeckaert, Peter Raeymaeckers

The community as a source of resources and not of conflict? Ways of allocating social spending and forms of solidarity action in the Milanese metropolis (2010-2021)

Tommaso Vitale, Emanuele Polizzi

From Athens with "Love, Offerings, Solidarity": Scales of Religious Aid in the Urban Context

Hannah Howard

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	3.2	Level 3

Muslim Women and the Mosque Space: Ethnographic case-studies around Jamia Nagar Locality, Delhi

Sobia Hamid Bhat

Regulating the civil urge to care: tiny houses for the homeless

Manuel Lutz

Urban Solidarities and Migrants: An Encounter, Aspirations and Contradictions

Sara Maani

Religiosity in the making: An ethnographic study in a modern mass housing project in Kayasehir – Istanbul

Ceylin Idel

Panel No.24

Ordinarily Massive: Revitalizing Approaches to Large Scale Urbanization

Convener: Abdoumalig Simone | The Urban Institute, The University of Sheffield,
Sheffield, United Kingdom

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.24

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	B1	Level -1

Expanding Cairo at Times of the "Maybe": Massive Urban and Financial Incompleteness

Momen El-Husseiny

The Extended City in the Planetary Age

Nitin Bathla

Ordinarily Massive Urbanisation in Peri-Urban Lahore: Reassembling Access to Land amidst the Ravi Riverfront Urban Development Project

Helena Cermeño

Dismantling the Urban "Public": The Simultaneous Decline of Public Space & Active Citizenship in Contemporary Chennai

Pritika Akhil Kumar

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	B1	Level -1

'Only a tricycle can reach'. Popular economies, infrastructures and urban mobility in Tamale

Jacopo Favi

New forms of metropolitan governance developed in the Global South: metropolitan governance and planning in Bucaramanga, Colombia

Ethel Segura Durán

Métropolisation: Getting to Grips With the Axiomatic City-State From the Periphery

John Welsh

Engaging ordinary materials: Racialised assemblages in an expanding city

Claudia Gastrow

Panel No. 25

Ordinary urban political institutions and the multiple exceptionalities of our times

Conveners: Eduardo Marques | Center for Metropolitan Studies/University of São Paulo, São Paulo, Brazil, Walter Nicholls | University of California Irvine, USA

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.25

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	3.1	Level 3

Localism in Action? – A case study of Queen’s Park Community Council in London

Asato Saito

Economic recession, political changes and shifts in ‘urban regeneration’ policy

Sónia Alves, Rosa Branco

Refugee integration through housing innovation: Under what conditions do local responses on refugee integration succeed in a multilevel governance context?

Alexandra Bousiou, Olga Stepanova, Andrea Spehar

Undoing Democracy?: Restructuring Urban Governance through Exceptions

Seda Yuksel

Delhi 2019 – 2022. Shocks and institutional reactions in an (extra)ordinary global city

Gloria Pessina

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	3.1	Level 3

The EU's Urban Agenda: a case for conceptualising global sustainable development as an emerging transnational political field

Monika De Frantz

The Right to Have Rights: Strengthening a European City Network on Migration through Learning from the Charter of Palermo

Maryam Karimi

Institutional Creation as a Local Governance Response to Syrian Refugees: The case of Turkish municipalities

Basak Yavcan, Fulya Memisoglu

How the urban matters: assessing the place-based social innovation capacity of urban civil society in Europe

Stijn Oosterlynck

Panel No.26

Peripheralisation: The production of ex-centric places as an ordinary process of extended urbanization

Conveners: Christian Schmid, Metaxia Markaki | ETH Zurich, Zurich, Switzerland

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.26

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Territories of Peripheralisation

The Dialectics of Operationalization and Peripheralization across the US corn and soybelt

Nikolaos Katsikis

Productive Soil. The Planning of Activity Sites in the Peri-urban City

Federico Diodato

Peripheralization processes and the emerging of new landscapes of conflict: between the Yellow Vests movement and the George Floyd rebellion

Nicolò Molinari

Being Urban in the Periphery: the Urban Process of the Yi Ethnic Region in China

Yinglei Chen

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Infrastructure and Extended Urbanisation

“Silk Road here we come”: Post-disaster politics, speculative infrastructures and the shifting urban geographies of Nepal

Elia Apostolopoulou, Hitesh Pant

Liquid urban extensions: the planetary remaking of La Plata estuary

Simone Vegliò

A Swiss Valley in the Remote Mountains of China

Yiqiu Liu

Time	Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Ecologies of Peripheralization

Assemblages of technology, community, and (geo)politics in the expansion of renewable energy infrastructures

Marilena Mela

Peripheries in the center. Views from the distant loci of new energy battles

Constantina Theodorou

Belonging by confrontation: living next to a mine in Skouries, Greece

Danai Liodaki, Giorgos Velegrakis

Planning and land policy for weather and climate extremes

Themistoklis Pellas

Registration and promotion of the rural heritage of Amorgos: a tool to enhance identity and sustainable development

Katerina Kanakari

Time	Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Urban Struggles at the Edge

Processes of Peripheralization: Toehold and Aspirational Urbanization in the Gauteng City-Region

Lindsay Blair Howe

"We Don't Have Else To Go": Engaging with the Fractal Geometries of Peripheralization, Infrastructures and Everyday Life on the Outskirts of Belgrade

Stefan Janković

Eviction of the Consent: Politics of extended urbanization in Turkey

Kaan Kubilay Asar

Exploring Up Town: an ethnography of the "smartest and greenest district in Italy" in a peripheral context of the city of Milan

Filippo Borreani

The Power of Public Participation: Socioeconomic impacts of urban development projects in Egypt

Mohamed Hagra

Time	Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Peripheralization by Dispossession

Peripheralisation Conflicts: Urban and Political Dynamics in the New Space for Elite Reproduction in Santiago de Chile

Maria Luisa Mendez, Modesto Gayo

Youth agricultural cooperatives in the Palestinian central highlands (West Bank): a model emerging from the contradictions of peripheralization

Faiq Mari

At the margins of the Mediterranean: agro-urbanization, racial capitalism and the politics of inhabitation in the “migrant ghettos” of today

Giulia Torino

On Being Urban and Agrarian: Peripheralization in the Global South

Shubhra Gururani

Time	Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	A1	Level 0

Theories of uneven development and peripheralization

Urban theory from Latin America: rethinking peripheral urbanization under financialized dependency

Michael Lukas, Nadine Reis

Degrowth: Starving Capitalist Urbanization from the Outside

Julia Smachylo, Mike Chieffalo

The Production of Urban Semi-Peripheries: A World-Systemic Perspective

Mushahid Hussain, Kai Wen Yang

The world exterior of capitalism

Bárbara Mações Costa

Panel No.27

Queering Urban Space – Instability, Displacement, Resistance

Conveners: Christian Haid | Technical University Berlin and Polygonal Office for Urban Communication, Germany, Lukas Staudinger | POLIGONAL Office for Urban Communication, Germany

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.27

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	3.1	Level 3

Commoning through queer socialisation, sex and nudity: the case of the gay beaches of Attica, Greece

Phevos Kallitsis, Loukas Triantis

Queer(ing) in the Ordinary. Aachen's queer commons as innovative reactions to 50 years of crises

José Miguel (Pepe) Sánchez-Molero Martínez

The Women's College, Between Queer Utopias and Heterotopias: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives from Delhi's Indraprastha College

Nivedita Tuli

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	3.1	Level 3

Glitches in Platform Urbanism: Theoretical Play on Queer Solidarity

Letizia Chiappini, Ying-Tzu Lin

Territories delimited by subjectivities or body-territory: from ghetto to contemporary gay territories

Miguel Da Cruz Mermejo, Paul Santoro

Panel No.28

Reimagining Urban Infrastructure through Spatial Occupation

Conveners: Raktim Ray | University College of London, London, United Kingdom, Ufaque Paiker | Ashoka University, Sonipat, India

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.28

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	B2	Level -1

Defending against abandonment. Infrastructure and social reproduction in the recuperation of spaces in the Old city of Taranto (Apulia)

Vincenzo Lo Re

Alternative space movements in the global sixties: Comparative urban studies of London, Tokyo and New York

Hideaki Sasajima

Protest and Spatial Restructuring in the city of Kolkata: A study

Tahmin Fatma Barkati

Panel No.29

Reorganising Work: On the spatial fragmentation of work and new flexible work infrastructures in small and medium-sized cities

Conveners: Janet Merkel, Dimitris Pettas, Vasilis Avdikos | TU Berlin, Berlin, Germany

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.29

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	1.2	Level 1

Rethinking the value of proximity in the wake of pandemic: The changing entrepreneurship patterns and ways of operation of creative and cultural enterprises located in creative hubs in Tallinn, Estonia

Ingmar Pastak, Ragne Kõuts-Klemm, Helen Eenmaa, Eneli Kindsiko

Has urban coworking become adult? On spatiotemporal detached coworkers and the(ir) boundaries of sharing

Malte Höfner, Nikos Gatsinos

Informality and local development agendas; developing creative hubs in small cities

Vasilis Avdikos, Vera Fabinyi

Forms of population relocation and new workspaces in tourist areas in Italy

Carolina Pacchi, Virginia Vecchi

Panel No.30

Resilience and research in ordinary cities during crises

Conveners: Nidhi Subramanyam | University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada,
Taru Taru | University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, United States

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.30

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	B2	Level -1

Informal glass workers under COVID 19: coping with precariousness, negotiating assistance and framing the disease in Firozabad, India

Arnaud Kaba

Networked Governance and Hybridity for Better Pandemic-Response and Social Resilience – Insights from State Migrant Control Room, Jharkhand, India

Taru Taru

Ambiguity in action: Handling compounded uncertainty in spatial planning and humanitarian action in the unexpected floods in Wayanad, Kerala

Mrudhula Koshy, Rolee Aranya, Hilde Refstie

High life in a high-rise: An ethnographic study of everyday life during Covid-19 in an urban community in the City of Colombo, Sri Lanka

Avanka Fernando

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	B2	Level -1

Getting Home During Lockdown: Circular migration and hyper-precarity in rural Tamil Nadu at the time of Covid-19

Nidhi Subramanyam, Geert De Neve, Grace Carswell,

Climate Crises in Ordinary Cities: Policymaking for Transformative Resilience

Amrita Daniere, Joanna Kocsis, Rebecca McMillan

Confronting multi-layered crises and enhancing disaster resilience through data generation in Rio Branco, Brazil

Vangelis Pitidis, Fernanda Lima-Silva, Livia Castro-Degrossi, Aniely Araujo-Porto, Gabriel Brandão

Panel No.31

Shrinking but Livable? Local agency and bottom-up initiatives in shrinking cities

Conveners: Alla Bolotova | Aalto University, Helsinki, Finland
Maria Gunko | Institute of geography, Russian Academy of Science, Moscow, Russia

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.31

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	New Building	1.1	Level 1

The Role of Urban Design in Creating a “Place”: Placemaking activity by residents of a social housing in Japan

Hanae Soma

Local initiatives in shrinking small towns as acts of dignity?

Leona Sandmann, Sven Messerschmidt

Overcoming the limitations to co-production in shrinking cities: a comparative view on Riga (Latvia), Nevers (France), and Heerlen (the Netherlands)

Anastasiya Matyushkina

Pessimism as a way of life – Branding the “best worst” dying town in Northern Finland

Johanna Lilius, Alla Bolotova

Panel No.33

The Challenge of Urban Poverty in Cities of the Global South and of the Global North

Conveners: David Benassi | University of Milano-Bicocca, Milan, Enrica Morlicchio | University of Naples - Federico II, Naples, Enzo Mingione | University of Milano-Bicocca, Milan, Italy

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.33

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	B3	Level 1

Defaming Narratives: Poverty, Territorial Stigma and Residents Pride of Place in Inner City Dublin

Lidia K.c. Manzo

Street children of Naples and Palermo: the challenge of urban poverty in a spatial perspective

Mario Trifuoggi, Filippo Oncini

Why is it so cold at home? Case of energy poverty in large Ukrainian cities

Alona Liasheva

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	Main Building	B3	Level 1

Intersecting Vulnerabilities of Urban Poverty and Homelessness in India, with Special Attention to Delhi

Ashwin Parulkar, William Avis

Spaces of social exclusion: socio-spatial inequality and urban change

Luděk Sýkora

Panel No.34

The right to housing in exceptional times

Conveners: Stavros Stavrides | National Technical University of Athens, Athens, Greece, Ioanna Piniara | Architectural Association, London, United Kingdom

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.34

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 1

You cannot stay home if you don't have one

Tonia Katerini

Assessing Airbnb trends and impacts in exceptional times: The case of Bologna (Italy) before and after the Covid-19 arrival

Mattia Fiore

Everyday-life spaces in exceptional times: Exploring the approach of Annie Vrychea to the refugee housing units in Thebes and Alexandras Avenue

Ernestina Karistineou Efthimiatou, Sergios Strigklogiannis

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 1

Housing emergency or habitability crisis? Reflections from Rome's housing squats

Margherita Grazioli

Subaltern verticalisation: experiencing exception in a planned resettlement colony in Mumbai

Himanshu Burte

The post-pandemic landscape of housing debt management in Greece

Dimitrios Loupetis, Antonis Papangelopoulos, Christos Georgakopoulos

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.34

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 1

The neutralisation of residential space through housing enclaves in late-neoliberal Cairo

Mohamad Abotera

Enclosure Practices in Small Towns as Reflection of Neo-liberal Housing Policies in Turkey: Case Study of Datça, Muğla

Sezen Savran Penbecioglu, Reycaan Çetin

Housing affordability and the city. Disentangling the urban and spatial dimensions of housing affordability in Europe

Marco Peverini, Rebecca Cavicchia

Seeing Like a Central Bank: Housing as a Channel for the Transmission of Monetary Policy

Dallas Rogers, Monique McKenzie, Lisa Adkins

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 1

The Politics of Property in Land: Governmentality of Neo-liberal Housing and its Contestations in Bangalore, India

Bhuaneswari Raman

The social housing dilemma. The neoliberal management of public assets in Mirafiori (Turin)

Chiara Iacovone, Francesco Carota

Contemporary housing policies: The ascendance of “naturally exclusive” clusters and the subsequent normalization of the excluded

Antigoni Geronta

Panel No.35

The right to housing in exceptional times: struggles for more equitable housing

Conveners: Dimitris Balampanidis | Harokopio University, Geography Department, Athens
Dimitra Siatitsa | Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Thessaloniki, Greece

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.35

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 1

Implementing innovative collaborative housing solutions in the private rental market: The case of Yes We Rent! UIA project in Mataró

Laia Carbonell Agustín, Albert Terrones Ribas, Dirk Gebhardt, Sonia Arbaci Sallazzaro

Re-narrating the right to housing: Exploring frictions in the landscape of alternative housing initiatives in Belgium

Aikaterini Anastasiou, Céline Drieskens

Post-crisis Right to Social Housing after the COVID-19 Pandemic: a Collective, Transdisciplinary Dialogue

Eleftheria Panagiotou, Maria Chiara Cela, Marina Comojo Soto, Alessandro Gess, Maryam Khatibi, Lidia Katia C. Manzo, Raul Marino, Saloni Parekh, Mark Scherner, Yuliia Zalomaikina, Elisa Zordan

Local governments reconfigured? Struggles for affordable housing in Basel

Jonas Aebi, Luisa Gehriger

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 1

From mobilizations against austerity to the struggle for the right to housing in Porto: protagonists, processes and continuities

Inês Barbosa

Out of the Defensive: a Strategy for a Tenants' Commons in Berlin

Ian Clotworthy

Resisting and Reclaiming: Property Occupations by Homeless Mothers in Three US Cities

Claire Herbert, Amanda Ricketts

The right to housing as preliminary step for migrants' integration process: findings from an Italian case study

Marta Salinaro, Marta Ilardo

Panel No.36

The role of the spatial in struggles to belong for racialized and ethnicized persons

Conveners: Christine Barwick, Jean Beaman | Europa Universität Flensburg, Flensburg, Germany

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.36

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	Main Building	B3	Level 1

Urban locations in the AMS of Chile: spatializing the process of racialization of Afro-Latino and Caribbean migrants

Vania Reyes Muñoz

Planning the Anti-Policing infrastructure: CAPA and the horizon of struggle

Ian Baran

Constructing Place, Culture and Community in a Post-secular City: An ethnographic study on the transnational daily routines of Turkish Muslim women in Berlin

Ceren Kulkul

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	Main Building	B3	Level 1

Accounting for the Local Context of Race Relations: The Case of Mexicans in Los Angeles, 1930 and 1940

Maria G. Rendon

Tracing legacies of 'race', whiteness and the nation through a discursive inventory of Berlin's Wedding district

Christine Barwick, Christy Kulz

Panel No.37

Towards new urban economies in the post-pandemic society? Digital and social infrastructures for the embeddedness of the urban economy

Conveners: Alberta Andreotti | Department of Sociology and Social Research, University of Milan - Bicocca, Milan, Ivana Pais | Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan, Laura Sartori | Università degli Studi di Bologna, Bologna, Italy

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.37

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	2.1	Level 2

The neighborhood as a platform for sharing space. The application of the NeighborHub pilot project in the public housing of districts of Is Mirrionis and San Michele in Cagliari

Ester Cois, Emanuel Murońi, Ivan Blečić, Valeria Saiu

Re-imagining healthcare: Wearable smart technologies, the role of medicinal commons and the hyperlocalisation of healthcare datasets

Alexander Carberry

The prospects of the 15 minutes city in the Metropolitan City of Milan: discussion of their potentialities and criticalities

Simone Caiello

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	2.1	Level 2

Cooperatives, digitization and the transformation of networks of urban areas

Andreas Walker, Katharina Isack

Digital cities as innovation systems: data governance arrangements for social inclusiveness

Sofia Pagliarin, Jurian Edelenbos

Dynamics of Social Innovation in Collaborative Workspaces: A comparative study from Athens

Lorenzo Marmo, Colm Stockdale

Panel No.38

Transnationalizing Deindustrialization Studies: Causes and Impacts in Ordinary Cities

Conveners: Neha Sami | Indian Institute for Human Settlements, Bangalore, India,
Seth Schindler | University of Manchester, Manchester, UK

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.38

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	Main Building	A2	Level 0

When the post-industrial is not enough: gentrification through the re-building of a deindustrialised aesthetic in Turin

Michela Voglino

Industrial Destabilisation: the case of Rajajinagar, Bangalore

Shriya Anand, Aditi Dey

Deindustrialization as a constitutive factor of real estate development in an East-European periphery

Eniko Vincze

Insecurity of Deindustrialisation: Making of the Security Worker in Millennial Mumbai

Maansi Parpiani

Panel No.39

Twisting territorial stigmatization

Conveners:

Cristina Mattiucci | University of Naples "Federico II" - Dept. of Architecture, Naples, Italy,
Anke Schwarz | Technische Universität Dresden, Germany

Friday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.39

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	1.1	Level 1

Race as productive of gentrification and as a vehicle to further stigmatization in three Black and Latino communities in Chicago, USA

Carolina Sternberg

Stigmatised territories of southern Italy: between the spectacle of the otherness and the history of (sub)proletariat

Roberta Pacelli

Re-stigmatizing urban regeneration in Haifa

Ronnen Ben-Arie

Security by design policies in the Brussels Region: unpacking the spatial valuation of spaces and practices by the state

Alex Govers Pijoan, Lore Janssens

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	1.1	Level 1

Obfuscation and legitimation in the production of territorial stigma: representations and everyday practices in a central neighborhood of Athens

Ifigeneia Dimitrakou

Territorial stigmatization as an urban continuum: dissecting stigma in Johannesburg

Federica Duca

Territorial Stigmatization from Below? Countering Elites' Informality in Rio de Janeiro

Frank Müller

Panel No.40

(Un)exceptional Neighbourhoods: Transforming, Contesting and Reclaiming the Socialist-Modernist Large Housing Estates

Conveners: Sara Nikolić, Sanja Iguman, Dušanka Milosavljević | Institute for Philosophy and Social Theory, University of Belgrade, Belgrade, Serbia

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.40

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	3.1	Level 3

Blok meets Polykatoikia: an enquiry concerning the principles of mass housing

Milos Nacic

Post-Socialist Gardens in Workers' Neighborhoods. Cases of Moscow, Russia and Wuhan, China

Daria Rud

Long and short-term transformations of the LHE in Czech cities: residents' perspective

Jana Kočková, Slavomíra Ferenčuhová, Marie Horňáková, Petra Špačková

Managing the identicals, creating identity. What makes the difference? Preliminary factors and differences in management systems of two LHE in Yekaterinburg

Albina Davletshina, Elena Batunova, Carola Neugebauer

Panel No.41

Up and around. Climate change, élites and ecological gentrification

Convener: Magda Bolzoni | University of Turin, Torino, Italy

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.41

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	1.2	Level 1

The Green Road Project: A Mobility-led Tourism Gentrification of Turkey’s Eastern Black Sea Plateaus?

Merik Kirmizi

Repopulation of mountainous areas? And what is done with it?

Manfred Perlik, Merve Altundal

Going up! Real estate market and the pandemic Alps

Marta Tonetta, Giovanni Semi

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	1.2	Level 1

Participatory foresight for a revitalizing and sustainable rural gentrification: a case study in Piedmont

Alessandro Sciuolo, Claudio Marciano

Under the Clouds of Wildfires: Climate Justice and the Making of Urban Futures in Vancouver

David Champagne

Panel No.42

Urban insecurity: illegal markets and informal governance

Conveners: Gabriel Feltran | University of Sao Carlos, Sao Carlos, Brazil
Sébastien Jacquot | Paris I - Sorbonne, Paris, France

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.42

Time		Room
17.30 – 19.00	New Building	Lab 2.1	Level 2

The contrasted socio-territorial configurations of insecurity in the Paris metropolis

Antoine Jardin, Edmond Preteceille, Philippe Robert, Renée Zauberman

Extortion or taxes? Criminal leaders and fiscal authority in Kingston, Jamaica

Rivke Jaffe

Exploring a plural policing landscape in under-resourced neighborhoods

Faisal Umar

The urban insecurity as a market: an analysis on the participation of private agents on the regulation of car theft in São Paulo, Brazil

Janaína Maldonado, Isabela Vianna Pinho, André De Pieri Pimentel, Gregório Zambon Diniz

Panel No.43

Urban migrant citizenship and (post)covid-19

Conveners: Tatiana Fogelman | Roskilde University, Roskilde, Denmark, Henrik Lebuhn | Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany, Nir Cohen | Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.43

Time	Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Municipal and civil society perspectives

Urban Migrant Citizenship in pandemic times in Italian small towns: a case study

Alba Angelucci, Eduardo Barberis

Urban citizenship-making at times of crisis: How migrant-serving organizations in Tel Aviv, Copenhagen, and Berlin responded to the Covid-19 pandemic

Daniela Krüger, Lisa Maurer Chodorkoff , Maayan Ravid

From the national macrocosm to the urban microcosm: Local citizenship and Immigration

Sofia Ntaliou

Migrants, COVID-19 and disadvantaged neighbourhoods – the unequal spatiality of health infrastructures in German cities

Jörg Plöger, Mariam Manz

Time	Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	Ceremony Hall	Level 1

Migrants' perspectives

Citizenship, Gender, and Class: How Mongolian Migrant Women Accessed Urban Spaces in South Korea during the Covid-19 Pandemic

Martina Vittoria Sottini

Homeless Migrants' Access to Resources in Berlin in the Times of Coronavirus Crisis

Fazila Bhimji

Urban Citizenship during times of COVID and Post Covid: Experience of migrant workers in Construction and Street Trade

Krunal Parekh, B. Raman, Kartikey Chaturvedi

Lived experiences of Senegalese immigrant entrepreneurs in Little Senegal, New York City during covid

David Monda

Living in Legal Limbo: Challenges and Opportunities to live in a "Refuge City" for Undocumented migrants

Gülce Ozdemir

Panel No.44

Urbanization of the Commodities Boom: Across Local/Global and Urban/Rural Divides

Convener: Giselle Mendonca Abreu | University of California, Berkeley, United States

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.44

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	1.2	Level 1

Exceptional Mines, Ordinary Cities: Extractivist Urbanization in Amazonia Beyond Urban/Rural Binaries

Rodrigo Castriota

Land and Water for Export in “La Tierra mas Fina”: Contested Claims to Regional Resources and Futures across an Agro-Industrial System in the Mexican Altiplano

Samuel Tabory, Diane Davis

Chilean Cherries for China. But how? Geographies of a commodity between extractivism and perspectives of socio-ecological transformation

Karl Kraehmer

The Developmentalist past and the “Modern Cities” program in Colombia’s Amazon

Isabel Penaranda

Panel No.45

Variegated densities; politics of density discourse in peri-urban regions

Conveners: Vafa Dianati | University College London, London
Katayoun Karampour | University of Cambridge, Cambridge, United Kingdom

Thursday, 25 August 2022

Panel No.45

Time		Room
11.00 – 12.30	New Building	1.2	Level 1

Traded Densities: A study of Density regulations and Housing Supply outcomes in Mumbai

Husain Vaghjipurwala

Ordinary Infrastructure, Exceptional Cities: Unpacking the Narrative of "Ordered Cities" in the Hinterlands of Brazil

Giselle Mendonca Abreu

Clash of Rationalities - Densification Policy and Informal Practices in Two Neighbourhoods in Cape Town, South Africa

Mercy Brown-luthango, Martin Magidi

Densifying Dwelling: Accumulation, Accommodation, and Affliction through formal housing in Megacity Mumbai

Rishi Jha

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	1.2	Level 1

In Densification we Trust – The day-to-day Politics of Urban Densification in the Alpine Rhine Valley

Johannes Herburger

In peripheral territories, when fighting sprawl through densification benefits the race for growth

Maryame Amarouche

Variegated: the need for temporally, socially, and spatially bracketed density discourses for urban field research

Adam Abdullah, Soha Macktoom

Panel No.46

“What’s law got to do with it?”: the formal and informal regulation of urban dynamics

Conveners: Danielle Chevalier | Leiden Law School, Leiden
Michiel Stapper | Tilburg Law School, Tilburg, Netherlands

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.46

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	1.1	Level 1

The politics of informal urban land tenure between the papers, the courts, and the ground: an analysis of actors and policies in São Paulo

Marcela Alonso Ferreira

Planning with Recognition: Three Frameworks to Ensure Urban Justice

Ana Paula Pimentel Walker, Abigail Friendly, Taru Taru

(Self)regulating boats as housing - an outlook from the UK

Jakub Galuszka

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	1.1	Level 1

‘Legitimized architecture’ of Minsk-World: Endorsing primitive accumulation through housing in Belarus

Dasha Kuletskaya

On crafting planning regulatory tools: law and regulation as gate keeper or closer in planning urban mixed-use public spaces

Ying-tzu Lin

Legal and Illegal; Ubiquitous and Invisible: The tacit governance and tenure regimes of Lagos

Lindsay Sawyer

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.46

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	1.1	Level 1

Rent as a Legal Dispute. An Exploration of Law amidst the Landlord – Tenant Conflict

Marta Ill Raga

Regulating Public Space Through Mobile City Applications: Local Authorities Between Legal Obligations and Popular Demand

Lior Volinz

Hard consequences of flexible legislation in residential heritage management

Elena Batunova, Albina Davletshina, Carola Neugebauer

Panel No.47

Youth's making, shaping and reclaiming urban spaces

Conveners: Ebru Soytemel, Yildirim Senturk, Ben Perasović | Aston University, Birmingham, United Kingdom

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.47

Time		Room
09.00 – 10.30	New Building	3.2	Level 3

Building an Urban Commons: Toward an International Toolkit for Youth

Jade Mandrake, Francesca Ranalli

Neoliberal Urbanism in Post-Socialist Cuba: Youth responses to the dispossession of public space in Old Havana

Joanna Kocsis

Public space as an opportunity for young people: the example of young peoples (sub)cultural practices in the city of Zagreb

Vanja Dergic, Dino Vukušić

Time		Room
13.30 – 15.00	New Building	3.2	Level 3

Exploring the urban impact of social and cultural currency amongst young African Creatives in Anglophone West Africa's Cultural Capitals

Carina Tenewaa Kanbi

Looking for a 'safe space': reproduction of social inequalities in young people's socialising practices in Coventry, UK

Anton Popov, Ebru Soytemel

Urban Skate Zones: the 'right to the city' of urban youths or neoliberal urban entrepreneurialism?

Danielle Chevalier

Basketball and 'heritage in-the-making' in Zagreb: Youth activism in public space and conflict with the local political and sports establishment

Marko Mustapić, Benjamin Perasović

Friday, 26 August 2022

Panel No.47

Time		Room
15.30 – 17.00	New Building	3.2	Level 3

Youth's Making of a Differential Space in Istanbul

Saim Buğra Kurban, Yıldırım Şentürk

Study Park: Youth Reclaiming Public Space in an Indian College Town

Avinash Ediga

Carving out space for change: exploring the potential of youth-led collaborative place-making in (post)pandemic London

Katherine Stansfeld