

<https://enohe.net>

European Network of Ombuds in Higher Education

ENOHE is an association under Austrian law and a network for ombuds in higher education to learn from each other, to contribute to the implementation of good governance in higher education institutions and to build a stronger foundation for the ombud function in higher education.

Annual conferences 2024 in Covilha, Portugal

Webinars to current topics

Occasional papers for members

Supervision groups
for members

Literature:

Ombudswork in higher education, a practical guide, 2022 Lies Poesiat

The importance of Ombuds Work, 2024 Paul Herfs

Being an Ombudsman in Higher Education, 2017 Rob Behrens

ENOHE

European Network of Ombuds in Higher Education

98 Members at in higher education institutions all over the world

Australia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belgium, Canada, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Scotland, Spain, Sweden, Turkey, England, USA

ENOHE aims to Share approaches to common problems in higher education

Expand knowledge and compare working methods

Enhance skills and develop competences

Learn from each other

Ombuds in Higher Education is an impartial person to whom students (staff, faculty and administrators) can turn in an informal and confidential manner is resolving problems in an informal manner, primarily through conciliation and mediation should identify structural problems within the higher education institution and make recommendations to responsible authorities to prevent similar problems in the future or improve existing situation is positioned independently from the organisation's management structure and has direct access to anyone advocates for fairness and righteousness

Anna-Katharina Rothwangl | Markus Seethaler