

PARALLEL SESSIONS - SATURDAY 4TH FEBRUARY
1A - 9am-10.30am	1B - 9am-10.30am	1C - 9am-10.30am	2A - 11am-12.30pm	2B - 11am-12.30pm	3A - 3pm-4.30pm	3B - 3pm-4.30pm
A socially differentiated account of cycling as an uneven practice (Paper) Emmet Fox	A Multi-Perspective take on Advancing Cargo Bike Ownership for an Inclusive and Progressive Society (90 minute interactive discussion) Ann Njeri Orla Burke Robert O'Riordan Ruth Hally Tom Hennessy	Crowdsourced Cycling Data Applications to Estimate Noise Pollution Exposure during Urban Cycling (Paper) Rebecca Wogan and John Kennedy	Exploring Cycleway Opposition in Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown: A Critical Discourse Analysis (Paper) Robert Egan and Brian Caulfield	"A poetic geography": Reimagining cityscapes through reimagining cycling practices with Marc Augé (Paper) Barbara Siller	Parents' Willingness to Pay for Safe Cycling Infrastructure in Urban Areas for School Commuting (Paper) Declan Jordan and Áine Gorman	The Limits of 'Safety': An Argument for a Rights-Orientated Approach to Cycling Policy & Advocacy (Paper) Robert Egan
Popularizing the concept of mobility trajectory (Talk) Alice Grasset		Circulation plans – the most cost effective and resource light way to convert a city to cycling (Talk) Andrew McClean Brian Shannon Rory O'Neill	Implementing safe cycling infrastructure in Cork City: The experience so far (Paper) Colette Finn	Mobility haiku: documenting the lived experience of a commuting cyclist (Paper) Fionn Rogan	Child activism and its fundamental role in active travel projects: A case study of Limerick Cycle Bus (Paper) Anne Cronin and Maria O'Dwyer	Cycling Vulnerability: How media and policing are vital for safety (Talk) Neil Fox
The Cyclopedia of Change (Talk) Jo Sachs-Eldridge		Do lower speed limits in urban areas increase the number of people cycling? (Paper) Mairéad Forsythe	Metrics and clearly defined objectives: The tools for delivering cohesive cycling infrastructure in Ireland (Paper) Conor Buckley and Anne Cronin	Douglas Hyde and the arrival of the bicycle (Paper) Feena Tóibín	#andshcycles: Empowering teenage girls to explore and address the cycling gender gap in Ireland (Paper) Breanne Ayala	Cycling projects for mobility justice in Scotland (Paper) Emily Ryder
Identifying and Seizing Windows of Opportunity: Where should cycling advocates next put their energies? (Paper) Damien O'Tuama		How to achieve behaviour change? (Talk) Darren McAdam-O'Connell	Pulling together, not pulling apart! Experiences of the Cork Transport and Mobility Forum (Talk) Darren McAdam-O'Connell	Cycling Cities: The Cork Experience (Talk) Kevin Long	Cycling Without Age: The Right to wind in your hair (Talk) Clara Clark	UCC Commuter Plan: Over 15 years of active cycling promotion for a Green Campus (Talk) Stephan Koch
The Social Power of Electric Bikes (Talk) Patrick Murray		Co-creation: a means of achieving stakeholder consensus and political buy-in when planning and designing for active travel (Paper) Robert O'Leary			How can pro-cycling activism become more impactful? (Talk) Jo Sachs-Eldridge	Cork Cycling Festival 2019 (Short Video) Frank Daly
						Cork Cycling Festival: The Story so Far (Talk) Adam D'Arcy
Posters - These will be exhibited throughout the day and participants will be encouraged to chat with speakers during the lunch session 1.45-2.15pm		Safe Routes to School Thomas Connell Tracey Lydon Ellen Murphy Fiona Barry	The importance of joined-up investment in cycling, through the lens of the determinants of health Darragh Casey	How does active travel infrastructure in the Republic of Ireland move from idea to reality? Mary Venables		