

Currents of Knowledge

working with youth populations to deliver education on STBBI prevention and related stigma reduction

PHAC-funded project, 2017-2022

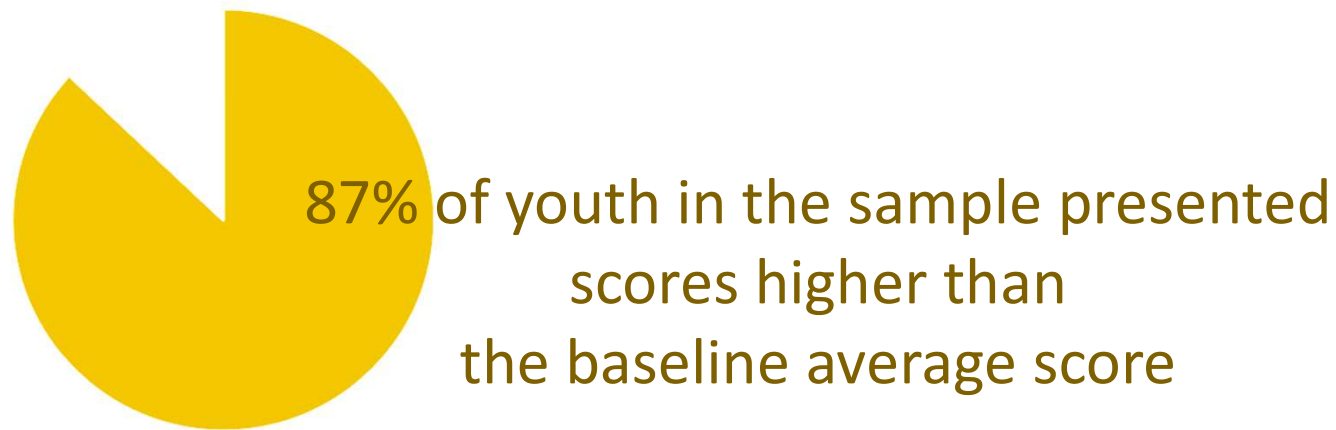

Results from years 1, 2 and 3
How the COVID-19 pandemic affected the project in year 4

SERC WINNIPEG
SERC BRANDON

WWW.SERC.MB.CA

50 Workshops delivered to 320 youth living in correctional facilities in Winnipeg

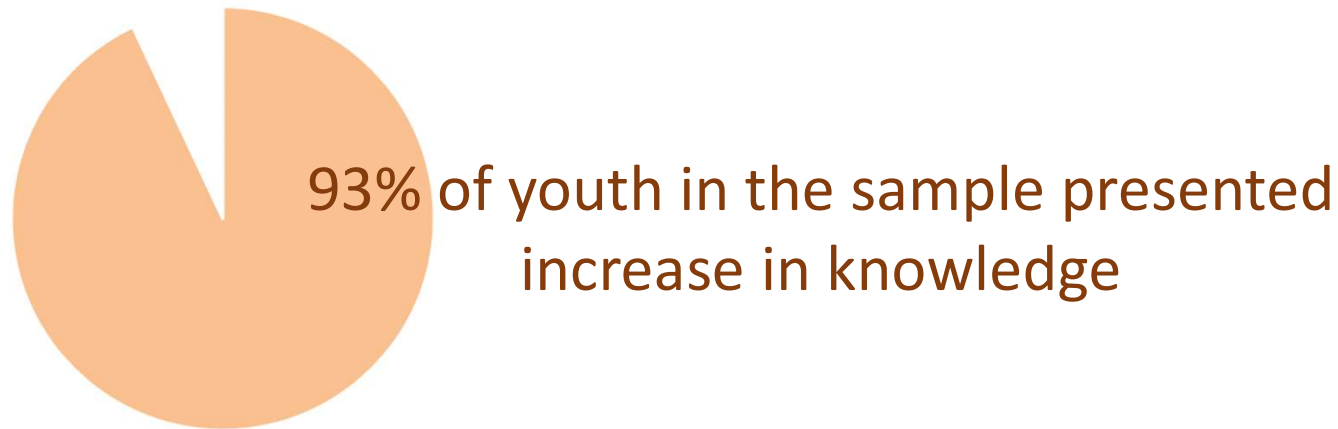

In comparison to baseline data, average knowledge at the end of the workshops among youth in the sample increased by 45%

Source: Scores from all participants who completed post-tests (43% of total)

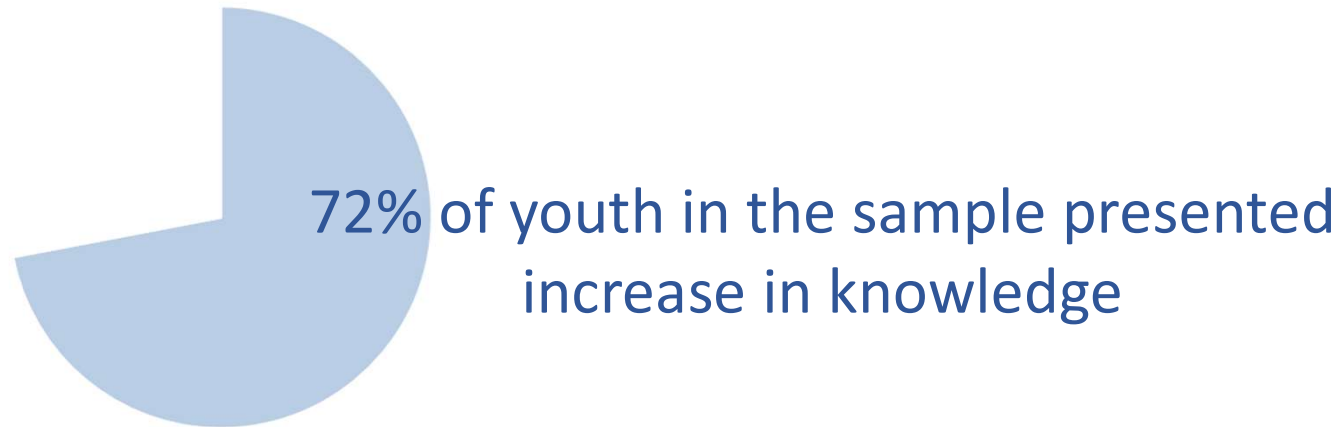

4 Specialized Peer Support Training delivered to 62 Transgender Youth in Winnipeg

Average knowledge among youth in the sample increased by 45%

Source: Scores from all participants who completed both pre- and post-tests (50% of total)

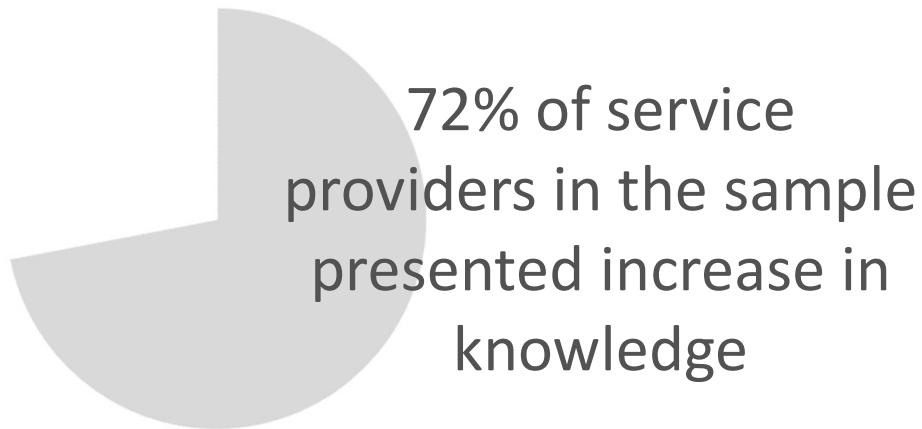

3 Specialized Peer Support Training delivered to 58 Indigenous youth in Northern Manitoba

Average knowledge among youth in the sample increased by 42%

Source: Scores from all participants who completed both pre- and post-tests (67% of total)

8 Trainings delivered to 109 Not for Profit Service Providers in Winnipeg and Northern communities

Average knowledge among service providers in the sample increased by 25%

Source: Scores from all participants who completed both pre- and post-tests (66% of total)

Year 4: how did the COVID-19 pandemic affect the project?

- In-person trainings and sessions halted
- Some communities have extra barriers to access technology
- Evaluation was based on on-paper forms and is being adjusted
- Travel to the North is restricted

For more information, please contact us:

Gillian Roy – Program Coordinator
(groy@serc.mb.ca)

Ana Iervolino – Program Evaluation and Research
(ana@serc.mb.ca)